Lachlan (age 7) and Abigail (age 10) created codes to help Dash the robot move around obstacles at Kingston Library on Wednesday, July 14 while visiting their Kingborough-based grandmother during the school holidays. For a glimpse of the children's craft at the Kingston Library, see page 7.

Townhouses for Kingston Town

A planning application for a five-stage, 36-unit development at the northern end of Kingston Town Shopping Centre was advertised for public viewing and input on July 10.

Kingborough Council received the application for 37-59 Maranoa Road with access over 99 Channel Highway on June 25.

Vehicle access is proposed from the road joining the shopping centre car park with the Channel Highway.

The site of the proposed high-density development is currently covered in mature vegetation which, according to the development application documents, would require clearing.

The proponent for the development is building company Revelstoke Building Solutions Pty Ltd.

The company previously built an adjacent 18-unit townhouse development in 2020 after the Tasmanian Planning Commission approved the rezoning of part of the land at 37-59 Maranoa Road from 'General Business' to 'Inner Residential' and removed the Biodiversity Protection Area overlay in August 2018.

Application documentation is available at <https://www.kingborough.tas.gov.au/development/planning-notices/>

Any representations must be lodged in writing with the General Manager, Kingborough Council, Locked Bag 1, Kingston 7050 or sent by email to kc@kingborough.tas.gov.au by July 23.

See page 3 for photos of the unit development site

Bendi-goes from Kingston

In a recent email sent to its Kingston banking customers, Bendigo Bank is closing its Kingston branch at Channel Court on Friday, August 13.

"After much consideration and following a detailed review, Bendigo Bank has made the difficult decision to close its Kingston branch, located at Channel Court Shopping Centre, Shop 34, 37-43 Channel Highway, Kingston," the email from Bendigo Bank Regional Manager Jordan Lovell stated.

"The branch will close from 2pm on Friday, August 13, 2021." Customers of Bendigo Bank will now have to travel to Hobart if they wish to do their banking in a physical branch.

The news has disappointed a number of locals who wrote to the Kingborough Chronicle about their concerns, including increasing traffic on the Southern Outlet.

"From Friday, August 13, 2021, your accounts at Bendigo Bank Kingston will be automatically transferred to our flagship branch, Bendigo Bank Hobart, located at 109-113 Liverpool Street, Hobart," the email continued.

"An ATM is also available at Bendigo Bank Hobart to provide convenient access to cash.

"You can also continue to make in-person cash transactions using the Bank@Post service at Australia Post in the Channel Court Shopping Centre, Shop 80, 29 Channel Highway, Kingston or continue to transact 24/7 online.

"In coming weeks, as well as providing regular banking services, our Kingston branch staff can provide assistance for passbook customers who don't yet have a debit card to move to statement accounts and debit cards, which will allow transactions directly with merchants or through Bank@Post."

One positive piece of news from the email confirmed that all of the Kingston staff at Bendigo Bank would not lose their jobs, and be given an opportunity within Bendigo Bank at another branch.

"Our Kingston branch staff will be re-deployed to other roles within our business network where they will continue to assist with any lending or other enquiries that you may have."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Council rates

Dear Editor,
Council rates have been published and accounts sent to ratepayers.

The increase in rates for this year is not alarming although still an increase.

With the explosion of new dwellings and increased population we should be receiving lower rates not larger imposts.

Bank closure upset

Dear Editor,
With Bendigo Bank's Kingston branch closing on August 13, local merchants, the elderly and those who depend on face-to-face banking will have to travel to the city branch in Hobart, resulting in a major imposition and increased traffic on the Southern Outlet.

Gratitude for honesty

Dear Editor,
After losing my purse on Monday, July 5, I was amazed and delighted to discover a wonderful person had found it and handed it in at the Kingston Police Station.

Unfortunately they didn't leave their name, so I am unable to reward them for their honesty, however, I do hope they read this letter and accept my deepest gratitude and thanks.

Their honesty has reinforced the fact that there is hope for mankind yet.

Their actions restored my faith in humanity.
Thank you most sincerely.

Removal of Part 7 of the Environmental By-law

Dear Kingborough Council,
I am writing with concern that Kingborough Council is proposing to delete Part 7 of its Health and Environmental Services By-law, and thus remove the requirement to apply for the removal of trees on private land.

Trees are important for a huge list of environmental and human values.

The character of Kingborough is very dependent on the trees that grow in the municipality, and with the high level of expansion of human habitation and associated infrastructure, trees are already being removed at an unsustainable rate.

For all your Real Estate needs.

Burn Brighter This Winter

Is your chimney smoking excessively?

A smoky chimney may mean you are contributing to smoke in your community.

Excessive smoke can build up and linger in the air around our homes and neighbourhoods. This may cause a nuisance for neighbours and in some cases may cause significant health problems to Tasmanians with existing conditions such as asthma.

Simple tips to reduce smoke:

- Always burn with a flame - don't let your fire smoulder
- After reloading, open the air control and burn your fire on high for 20 minutes, especially before going to bed
- Only burn dry, seasoned wood
- Ensure your flue is clean

For more information:
www.epa.tas.gov.au

Department of Primary Industries, Parks, Water and Environment

This is particularly obvious for new subdivisions and roads but I am noticing more and more of our trees are being removed.

It is already easy to remove trees on grounds (sometimes spurious) of safety and meeting the often-narrow objectives of new development.

It is important that council has oversight, decision making and enforcement of this process.

Developers have an eye on profit but we the people have to live with the denuding of our environment and the long-term effects of loss of habitat.

Do you know that Tasmania alone has more than 60 plants starting with A and B on the threatened species list let alone the rest of the alphabet?

The complete list is too long to count. We also have 90 vertebrate animals on Tasmania's threatened species list and this includes birds and animals in our local environment.

Did you know that the white bellied eagle (one lives on the Alum Cliffs and frequently flies along Kingston Beach) is also on this list? We think what we do doesn't matter, but it does.

Every single tree matters.

A solid decision-making framework has a structure.

When I am making business decisions there are a few criteria I use:

Is this good for the environment?

Is this good for the community?

Is this good for our business?

Is this good for me?

An ethical decision is one whereby all decision-making points are considered.

In this case, I think the consideration of this proposal is only good for the business of a few.

That does not consider a wider wholistic, ecological, community-based wellness frame at all.

Imagine where New York would be without Central Park.

Imagine London without Hyde Park.

Both areas are intrinsic to their cities because they bring life and diversity to the area.

We do not have such a park but we do have the trees.

Weakening of the controls on tree removal may be attractive to council from a resourcing viewpoint, but the cost of this responsibility is minor in the context of protecting the future character of the municipality.

It is an essential responsibility in ensuring the ecologically sustainable development of Kingborough.

Individual landowners and developers rarely have the breadth of understanding required when considering removal of trees, and local government is the only layer of government that can or will ensure that natural values are taken into consideration at the scale of individual trees.

I strongly urge Kingborough Council not to remove Part 7 of its Health and Environmental Services By-law, now or at any time in the future.

It would be an abrogation of council's responsibilities in meeting the Sustainable Development Objectives of Tasmania's Resource Management and Planning System.

Response from Kingborough Council

General Manager of Kingborough Council, Gary Arnold, provided the following response to concerns raised in the above letter from Mary Dwyer on July 15.

"The vast majority of residents will still have to apply to remove or lop trees," Mr Arnold stated.

"We already have a list of frequently asked questions and answers available on our website that addresses this in greater detail.

"Pursuant to the Local Government Act 1993 in the making of a By-law there is a requirement that the By-law be certified by a legal practitioner that its provisions are in accordance with the law.

"In order for this to happen, council has appropriately sought advice from the assisting legal professionals who will certify the By-law."

Removal of trees at Kingston Town

Dear Editor,
 Eighteen townhouses now stand at 99 Channel Highway on the Kingston Town Shopping Centre site on what was once a beautiful grassy open area. These buildings are bereft of green garden space. Revelstoke Building Solutions Pty Ltd, the developer of these townhouses, has lodged a Development Application (DA) with the Kingborough Council to build 36 more townhouses behind the existing ones and at the rear of the dwellings at 87-97 Channel Highway. If approved, this will involve the removal of mature eucalypt trees and the virtual obliteration of the green open-space remaining in this corner of the Kingston Town site. If built, the townhouses would be densely packed together. I hope Kingston residents who enjoy the greenery at Kingstown Town will take the time to read the DA, which is available online, and the associated planning documents that are available at Kingborough Council Offices, and lodge a representation against this DA. The deadline for representations is Friday, July 23.

COMMENT COLUMN Kingborough Councillor Paula Wriedt

I appreciate many residents are feeling election fatigued with the Kingborough Council by-election being held so soon after we all voted in the May state election.

Although voting in local government elections is not compulsory, councils play a significant role in the lives of our residents.

So, it's important to have your say on who you believe can continue the momentum for change created by our former Mayor, Dean Winter.

Having lived in Kingborough for over 30 years, I've witnessed the significant growth that has occurred.

While there have been many positives such as attracting new businesses and services to the area, we are all too familiar with the pressure this has put on our many facilities.

Not just on our roads but also our footpaths, public open spaces, stormwater and other public amenities.

Dean succeeded in getting the State Government to invest in infrastructure to meet our continued growth, but there is still more to be done.

While two new park and ride facilities are welcome, they will fill up quickly.

I live only three minutes away from Kingston's CBD, and travel to work by bus, but it takes 50 minutes and would be quicker, and cheaper, by car.

Yet I have no desire to take my car to work, as I don't need it and I don't want to add to the traffic.

Work should start now on further park and rides, rather than waiting a few more years.

Metro also needs to offer better timetables to make it easier for all, but especially those working unusual hours, as well as our young people.

In the last 12 months I've been speaking to many people about the importance of connected communities.

The pandemic proved how important it is to look out for one another during challenging times.

We can be proud that our communities did just that.

Many community groups across Kingborough mobilised members to reach out to elderly people or those who may be isolated and in need of assistance.

This has fostered more connections than ever before, and the challenge now is to maintain these.

We have been fortunate in Tasmania to have been relatively well protected from the virus, largely thanks to being an island state.

But as the events of the past weeks have shown, things can change rapidly.

So, let's not lose those connections that have been made, but build on them.

As a Councillor, I am committed to also building on our physical infrastructure that seamlessly links our communities through shared pathways, tracks and trails.

If we face lockdown situations in Tasmania in the future, we want to be able to exercise within our local areas with ease, on quality paths that link neighbourhoods and are accessible to all.

I am so glad I chose to move to Kingborough all those years ago as it's been the best place to raise my two children.

They received a quality education at Blackmans Bay Primary and Kingston High Schools.

Our many sporting clubs and community groups provided them with a vast range of choices of things to do and I am proud of the young adults that they have become.

I want to work with my fellow Councillors to ensure that Kingborough continues to be a place of opportunities for future generations like them.

We are fortunate to live in a country where we don't have to fight for the right to have our democratic say.

Yet in our last local government election only 57 per cent of residents voted.

Written submission period extended

Written submissions to the Commission of Inquiry into the Tasmanian Government's Responses to Child Sexual Abuse in Institutional Settings will now be accepted until September 3.

The Commission is particularly keen to hear from people who have been affected by, or who have knowledge of, recent allegations and incidents of child sexual abuse in the education system and public schools, the health system and at the Ashley Youth Detention Centre.

The Commissioners have extended the submissions period to allow as many people as possible to contribute.

More than 70 submissions have already been received from victim-survivors, organisations and supporters of children who have been affected by current issues in relation to the Tasmanian Government's response to child sexual abuse in institutional settings.

"We greatly appreciate the time and energy that has gone into making submissions, which will be extremely valuable," President and Commissioner the Honourable Marcia Neave AO said.

Written submissions are invited from individuals, groups and organisations whose insights, experiences and ideas will inform the Commission's understanding of the current gaps in the Tasmanian Government's responses to child sexual abuse and help to identify opportunities for change.

The Commission is able to provide assistance to prepare submissions.

Tasmania Legal Aid has also been engaged to assist people to make submissions on matters which fall within the scope of the inquiry.

For information on how to make a submission visit the Commission's website at <https://www.commissionofinquiry.tas.gov.au/home>

Huonville express bus

Two new Huonville-Hobart express bus services commenced on July 12.

The new Tassielink services aims to ease traffic congestion and benefit those commuting between Huonville and Hobart during weekday morning and afternoon peak periods.

The service will run four times in each direction, with the first bus departing Huonville at 6:05am and then every hour until 9:05am.

The first bus from Hobart will depart at 3:17pm and then every hour with the last bus at 6:17pm.

Provision of the new services aims to ease traffic congestion and encourage use of public transport.

Managing Director for Tassielink Transit, Shane Dewsbury, said the busses had been designed for Tasmanian roads and travel conditions, providing a comfortable travel experience for passengers.

"We just hope that the Huonville community jump on board, use the services and make it one of their first choices of getting in and out of Hobart," Mr Dewsbury said.

Huon Valley Mayor Bec Enders offered her support for the service.

"This is what our community have been asking for and certainly those that work in Hobart," said Mayor Enders.

Mayor Enders also commented on the prospect of travel being less daunting for those frequently travelling between Hobart and Huonville, with a potential saving of 40 minutes each day, and easing stress and traffic congestion.

Attending the launch on July 7, Infrastructure and Transport Minister Michael Ferguson MP commented that an affordable express service with no stops will become a comfortable service for those needing to travel to and from Huonville during peak hours.

Outpouring over tree protection law lopping

An outpouring of concerns regarding proposed changes to Kingborough Council's tree-clearing by-laws were received by the Kingborough Chronicle last week, including from community group leaders and several councillors.

Councillor Gideon Cordover said the proposed removal of Part 7 of the Environmental Services By-law would mean trees in urban areas not covered by the biodiversity code overlay would no longer have "the degree of protection they currently enjoy".

"The outpouring of submissions imploring council not to abandon Part 7 of the Environmental Services By-law is a testament to our community's interest in maintaining protection for high conservation value trees on private property," wrote Cr Cordover.

"This is particularly relevant in urban areas that are seeing unprecedented levels of development." President of Howden Progress Association, Leslie Frost, is also concerned regarding proposed changes.

"I wish to express my concern that council is proposing to delete Part 7 of Kingborough Council's Environmental By-law," wrote Ms Frost.

"I understand that exemptions will increase, thus making it easier to clear land under the coming Statewide Planning Scheme (SPS) and that our by-law will become invalid.

"We all know that the SPS is designed to 'remove red and green tape' for developers to enable them to maximise their profit at the expense of the environment and the community.

"Just look at the rooftop suburbia created by Spring Farm, Whitewater Creek and soon Huntingfield.

"Parts of Kingborough are still beautiful, but uglification is proceeding apace and we are rapidly losing the character that makes our municipality desirable and ecologically sustainable."

Councillor Cordover said tree protection is critically important to the community and proposed by-law changes also impact the municipality's funds.

"The Kingborough Environmental Fund, which has been receiving financial offsets for the removal of vegetation since 2004, will no longer receive the same amount of money once Part 7 is removed," said Cr Cordover.

"Removing Part 7 from the by-law will impact council's ability to increase the tree offset from $250 per high conservation value tree and $500 per very high conservation value tree when people or businesses seek to damage trees on private property that are; deemed to be of high or very high conservation value, or on the significant tree register as per Kingborough's Biodiversity Offset Policy."

"It remains to be seen what impact removing Part 7 of the Environmental By-law will have on council's ability to enact this aspect of the Long Term Financial Plan."

Cr Cordover said in the Kingborough Council Long Term Financial Plan, adopted on February 16, 2021, council agreed to include the statement "there may be an opportunity to increase revenue for the Kingborough Environmental Fund by reviewing the Biodiversity Offset Policy against alternative tree valuation frameworks such as the City of Melbourne Tree Valuation method".

Councillor Flora Fox says council should seek further legal advice before making changes to the by-law.

"I believe this change will remove important regulatory aspects that currently provide some degree of environmental protection for high conservation value trees and trees considered significant across our Kingborough community," said Cr Fox.

"This decision [to remove Part 7 of the Environmental By-law] is apparently based on legal advice.

"Given the complexity of the documents and the potential negative outcomes across our municipality from these changes, I would strongly support council seeking a second legal opinion, and also canvassing the approaches of other municipalities to what must be a shared problem.

"If the proposed by-law is adopted, council will not have an appropriate regulatory framework for exempt and no-planning-permit-required (NPR) vegetation removal," continued Cr Fox.

"And, as also stated in council's Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) document on this matter, in the event Part 7 is removed, the removal of high conservation value trees and some trees listed on the Significant Tree Register will no longer be regulated.

"In addition, as there is a time gap between when a tree is listed on the Significant Tree Register in accordance with council policy and the planning scheme being amended to include this tree.

"The removal of Part 7 could see trees listed on the Register but not yet listed, removed without any permit requirements," noted Cr Fox.

"Reliance on the cumbersome and totally ineffective process of the Significant Tree Register appears fraught and provides no confidence to me as to its part in any meaningful future tree protection.

"Cumbersome because council's Strategic Planner has previously advised [there's] a time gap of up to 12 months to get a Significant Tree registered in the planning scheme.

"As of February 2019, a total of only 43 trees plus two groups of Italian Poplars on the outskirts of Margate were on the Significant Tree Register across all of Kingborough," said Cr Fox.

"This totally reinforces the ineffectiveness of this tool for tree protection in our municipality, and the almost zero care factor shown by council to encourage nomination and subsequent progression to this register through a flawed and under-resourced process.

"Once the new Tasmanian Planning Scheme and LPSs come into effect, council's FAQ sheet says the urban-type zones will no longer have tree provisions for most of Kingborough, the ability to require offsets for tree removal will become unclear, and exemptions will also increase.

"As well, inappropriate tree removal is at odds with the implementation of Kingborough Council's Climate Change policies, where shade and canopy cover will become more important in a warming climate.

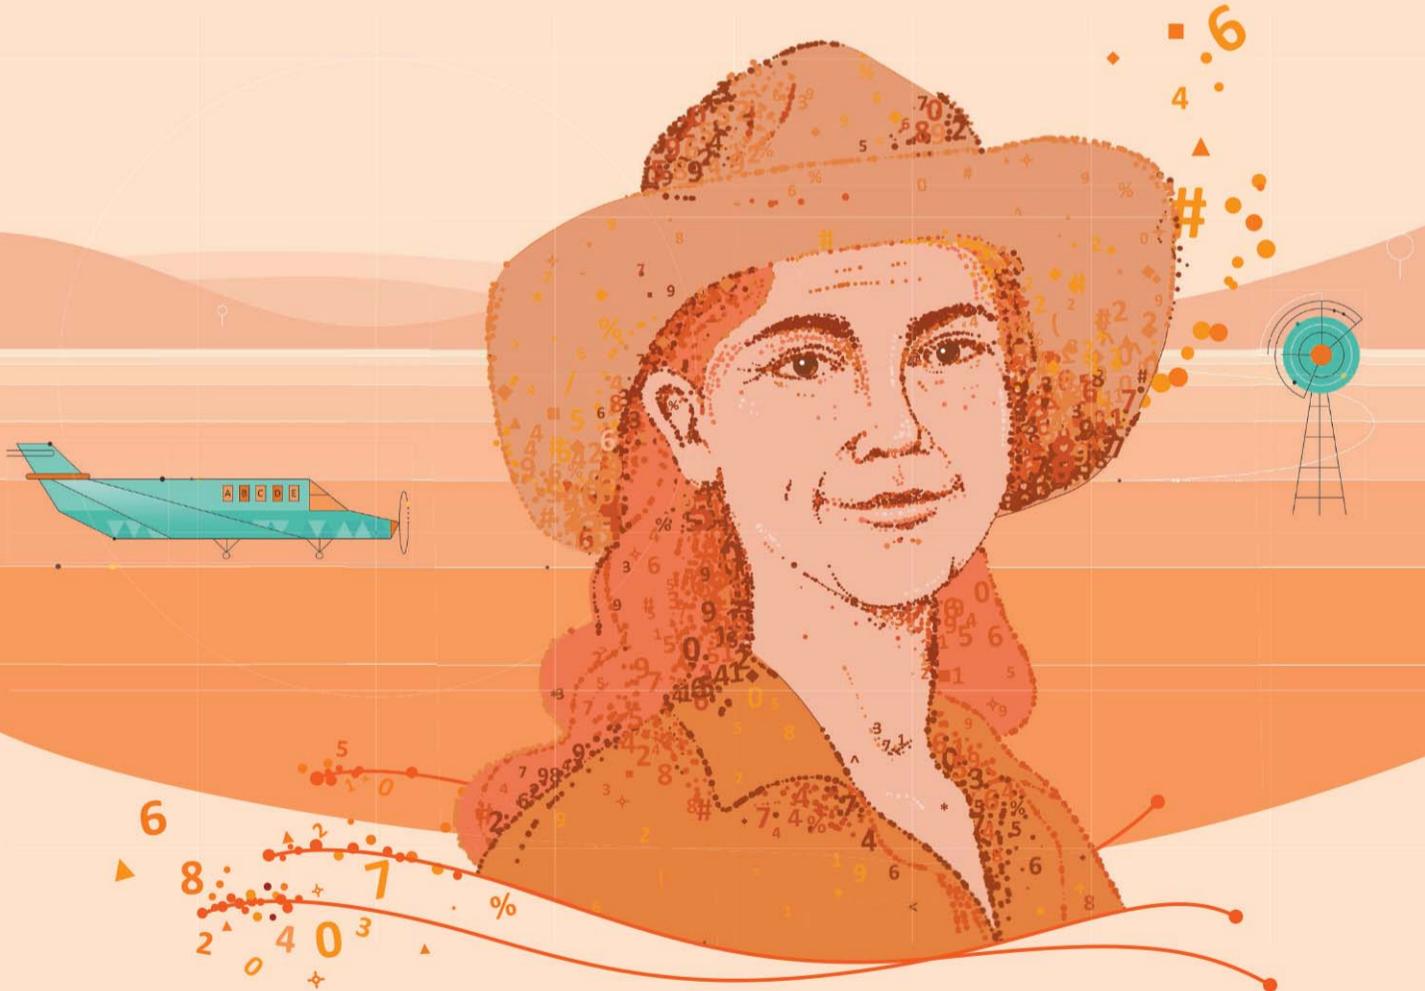

"All very unsatisfactory," concluded Cr Fox.

Public submissions on the proposed changes to the environmental by-law closed on July 19.

An established and irrigated orchard includes cherries, apples, pears, almonds, plums, nectarines and walnuts.

The home has ample water tank storage and a healthy dam is fed from a rivulet running through the property.

There's also a good-sized garage, carport, loads of under-house workshop/storage space and an animal shelter or stable.

TESTIMONIALS

Understanding and professional

After many months of ill health, we came to the decision that we would have to downsize and leave a beautiful property that we have called home for over twenty years.

This was a very difficult time for us and we were so glad that we opted to have Kerri-Louise Hooper assist us with organising the sale of our precious property.

Kerri-Louise was so understanding and made things so much easier for us.

Kerri-Louise and her assistant were so professional and ready to assist us with any of our queries.

Kerri-Louise's negotiation skills brought about a pleasing result for ourselves.

Many thanks Kerri-Louise and Kate.

Highly professional and knowledgeable with excellent interpersonal skills

While Kerri-Louise was very clearly working in the best interests of her client, as purchasers in this case, she also made us feel important and valued too.

In a hot market, it's easy for agents to be inconsiderate and dismissive of potential buyers and it can still come at the cost of the client.

Kerri-Louise's interest in our needs as buyers helped us to see the true value of this property for us - and this ultimately helped the vendor's sale price.

We appreciate her thoughtful and respectful approach, and should we ever be selling at some point, we'll ask Kerri-Louise to help us.

Textile art emerges

Textile artworks by members of the local Stitching and Beyond group have been on display in Kingston Library this month.

The works are from the group's 2020 challenge, on the theme Emerge.

Stitching and Beyond is a not-for-profit Tasmanian creative group encouraging the work of textile artists exploring innovative approaches to fibre and mixed media arts.

The group was formed in 2005 and meets at the Adult Education Centre in Kingston, on the third Monday of each month, from 10.30am.

President of Stitching and Beyond, Chris Hussey, said group members voted on the Emerge theme prior to COVID-19 emerging in 2020.

"The theme was decided on prior to COVID and turned out to be a perfect theme for the group to work on over COVID lockdown and the emergence from lockdown last year," remarked Ms Hussey.

"The theme for 2021 is Black and White Plus One. "I can't wait to see what wonderful things people create for it.

"These exhibitions are truly a feast for the eyes.

"Members in this diverse group come from not only all over Tasmania but also from further afield, with connections through a passion for fabric, fibre and threads, colour and texture and a desire to share ideas and knowledge collected over many years and from varying backgrounds."

Stitching and Beyond's exhibition coordinator Karen Stack said pieces from the annual challenge tour Tasmania every year and a biennial exhibition of new works is due to be unveiled in September.

"The Stitching and Beyond biennial exhibition Out of Hand is to be held in Hobart, in the Long Gallery at the Salamanca Arts Centre between September 24 and October 4," said Ms Stack.

"This exhibition aims to showcase the broad approach we take to textiles from traditional quilting and embroidery, painting, dyeing, mixed media, to three-dimensional pieces and wearable art.

"The diverse group includes spinners, felters, shoemakers, basket weavers, printers, calligraphers, quilters and embroiderers."

SERVICE OF THE WEEK

A home away from home for the fussiest of feline guests

Many years ago Lesley Gaze had a dream; a dream that at some time in the future she would be able to work with animals from home.

Over 15 years the dream became a reality. Lesley found herself in a position where she could build a Luxury Cat Hotel. Lesley prides herself on being 'the type of place that I would be happy to leave my own cats in if I were to ever go away on holidays, get sick or for some other reason could not care for them myself for a while'.

Lesley has spent over 20 years breeding the very beautiful Birman cat as a hobby. She can now expand to spending the whole day with both her breeding cats and her visiting guests at the Cosy Cats Luxury Cat Hotel.

'Where else could I go to work each morning and be greeted by so many happy faces so pleased to see me and offering head butts and cuddles?'

Every cat that stays at Cosy Cats is treated by Lesley as one of her own. 'I am very fussy about how my cats are cared for. I do my best to provide everything my guests and their owners expect with premium food, litter, scratching posts, a window and ledge for every cat to look out from and of course climate controlled rooms. Caring for cats is my passion not a job'.

Prices start from just $20 per night!

Baker tops bowls ladder

Round 13 of the Tuesday Fours Competition continued in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club with an upset.

Team Cawthorn was beaten by Team Mus and as a result slipped to second place on the competition ladder. Team Baker with Michael Steele, Peter Kirby, Michael Andersch and MJ (The Dominator) as skip, won after a titanic struggle, beating Harra's Harem by one shot and although equal on points with Cawthorns, ended with overall shots up advantage and therefore jumped into the top position.

Biggest winners on the day were Team Hinkley (Ann Hinkley, Jeff Parsons, Keith Hinkley and Paul McCann) winning by 17 and the biggest battle was the Newbold vs Schooling contest on rink 1.

The Cygnets team of Steve Wilks, Anna Hales, David DeBurgh and Dave Schooling won the day over the Rosny-based Newbolds by five shots.

One other highlight was the valiant effort of Team Bridge, missing out on their first win in the competition by only two shots.

Results of play was Schooling defeated Newbold 16-11, Baker defeated Harra's Harem 16-15, Hemmings defeated Rosevear 16-12, Mus defeated Cawthorn 15-10, Hickey defeated McIlroy 22-11, Hinkley defeated Kosi 29-12, Chaffey defeated Bridge 18-16, and Morgan defeated Monk 16-10.

The top six on the ladder at conclusion of play is Baker, Cawthorn, Hinkley, Newbold, Mus and Chaffey.

The Wednesday night Fours Competition saw the South Africans and Allen Sculthorpe cement themselves into the first and second place on the competition ladder when both Pumpkin Patch and Better Performance were defeated on the night.

As a result of the nights matches, The South Africans are in first place with 36 points and the outstanding plus 193 shots up.

Allen Sculthorpe is second on 34 points with plus 84 shots up.

After their loss, Pumpkin Patch are just holding onto third place on 28 points with plus 104 shots up.

The Dynamics are snapping at their heels, also on 28 points with plus 60 shots up.

Mark Burgess Seagulls, The Royal Hobart Dodgers and Better Performance are all sitting on 27 points, with the pressure on Pumpkin Patch to hold onto their place in the top three.

The results on the night saw The South Africans sweep The Scrubbers off the green defeating them 24-10. After three loses in a row, Willie Wonkers hit their straps and got the better of Better Performance 25-16.

The Dynamics again had a consistent game downing Titan Sylvia 24-17.

The Leftovers did not leave any scraps for the Sandy Bay Boomers finishing them off 23-7.

Allen Sculthorpe put up a mammoth showing against The Pumpkin Patch and planted them 16-15.

Mark Burgess Seagulls flew over the Claremont Monties 22-18.

The Geeveston Woodcutter hacked down the Oaktree Raiders defeating them 23-11 and The Royal Hobart Dodgers canned the Cherry Pickers 21-7.

Tigers test top

Tigers FC hosted TSL ladder leaders Launceston at the Twin Ovals in Kingston on Saturday, July 17.

The Tigers were looking to cause the upset of the round with Launceston well and truly top of the ladder in the 2021 season. The Tigers shot away to lead by 17 at the end of the first quarter.

They kept their noses in front at the main change, however Launceston made some gains and were only trailing by 13 at the main break.

The stage was set for the final quarter with the Tigers lead trimmed down to 10 points.

Unfortunately for the home side, Launceston completely controlled the final quarter, keeping the Tigers scoreless, while Launceston secured another win.

Final scores were Tigers 7.9.51 to Launceston 9.10.64.

Goals came from Luke Graham 3, Eli Reardon 2, Sam Duigan and Will Campbell 1.

Best on ground were Zac Adams, Brady Rees, Lochie Griggs, Marcus Davies, Ben Donnelly and Alex Bessell.

Tigers FC are now fourth on the ladder with Clarence taking over third after their win against North Launceston.

Lochie Griggs snaps a kick away in the Tigers' narrow loss to ladder leaders Launceston at the Twin Ovals on Saturday, July 17. (PS Carolyn Whitehouse)

WHY NOT JOIN THE RSL?

The Kingston Beach RSL Sub Branch is a registered charity whose role, among other things, is to look after veterans and their families (whether members of the RSL or not), and to conduct commemorative services such as those on ANZAC Day and Remembrance Day.

We also endeavour to encourage patriotic service and loyalty to Australia, which includes our involvement with awarding ANZAC prizes to local schools.

Membership of the RSL Sub Branch comprises serving and ex-serving members of the ADF and Allied Services (Service Members) and members of families who are related to or have been related to persons who are serving or have served (Affiliate Members).

We welcome everyone who might be eligible to join to support our work but especially younger veterans and their families.

At the present time, our membership mainly consists of older persons and we need younger people to provide continuity and to join our committees to guide our work into the future.

The RSL Sub Branch is associated with the Kingston Beach RSL Club where members can enjoy comradeship with other like-minded people.

The RSL is an Australia wide organisation that has helped service and ex-service people and their families since 1916.

Please consider joining. If you are interested please contact:

President Mel Cooper on 0455 660 264, the Secretary David Taylor on 6229 5817/0401 068 714 or by e-mail kbrslsubbranch@bigpond.com and arrange a visit to the Club if you wish.
