Budget debate over infrastructure promises

The State Government recently released its 2021-22 Budget which features some targeted funding for the Kingborough region, although opposition comments have stated it isn't living up to election promises.

A statement from the Department of Premier and Cabinet (DPAC) said the Budget aims to deliver on the State Government's plan to secure Tasmania's future.

"It builds on the strong foundations this government has established, growing our economy, creating jobs, supporting business and connecting the skills and training Tasmanians need to grasp the opportunities ahead," read the DPAC statement.

"We are delivering the biggest health spend in Tasmania's history, a record spend into education, skills and training and we're helping more Tasmanians into homes.

"This Budget invests in climate action and renewable initiatives and provides a more competitive tax system, one that is fair, sensible and sustainable.

"This Budget is based on listening to what the Tasmanian community wants and providing support where it is most needed.

"It delivers on our plan to secure Tasmania's future," the DPAC statement concluded.

Former Mayor of Kingborough and Member for Franklin, Dean Winter MP said the Budget has fallen short of promises made by the State Government, especially regarding the Kingston Health Centre and infrastructure at Huntingfield and Algona Road.

"The Liberals promised to build a new stage of the Kingston Health Centre," Mr Winter remarked.

"The Budget pushes this project out to not be completed for at least four years and only funds $10 million out of the $30 million cost.

"The Algona roundabout interchange and Kingston Bypass will not be built until at least 2027.

"Only $11 million of the $60 million has been funded."

Mr Winter said the government have already broken its promises to Kingborough residents, only three months since the election.

"The signs around the Algona Road roundabout at the election told us they would fix this major issue," Mr Winter stated.

"It turns out they won't fix it for at least six years.

"The upgrades have been underfunded by $50 million and the project won't be finished until at least 2027.

"This is not what they said only a few months ago.

"Likewise, the badly needed Kingston Health Centre expansion, a policy copied from Labor, has been pushed out until 2025, and underfunded by $20 million.

"Nothing has changed.

"They make commitments but don't deliver," Mr Winter finished.

The Kingborough Chronicle reached out to State Government about the funding and priorities for Kingborough and received a response from Minister for Infrastructure and Transport, Michael Ferguson MP.

"The Liberal Government brought forward the Algona Interchange vision from the recommended 10 years because we decided that the simple solution of a second roundabout was not the best approach," claimed Minister Ferguson.

"With the State and Federal budgets now delivered, we have funding certainty for the very first time."

Minister Ferguson did not mention if pressure from Kingborough Council regarding changes to the State Government's recent Development Application for the new Channel Highway roundabout played any part in this decision.

Minister Ferguson also declared the completion date in the Budget papers was a "conservative estimate" and said he expected that "the project will be delivered earlier".

"Within the first 100 days of the re-elected Liberal Government, we have already put in place engineering specialists to commence the planning and design for the Algona Road grade-separated interchange as well as the Kingston Bypass duplication, which will provide two lanes in each direction between the Channel Highway and the Southern Outlet," Minister Ferguson remarked.

Huon member departs

Huon Member of the Legislative Council, Dr Bastian Seidel resigned on August 23, citing political infighting, stupid games and a toxic environment as reasons for his departure from politics, as well as wanting to be there for his family.

"I have tried to work constructively to solve some of our issues in our party but have come to the realisation that I have failed," said Dr Seidel

"I can't work in a toxic environment and I can't work with people who constantly leak information to the media out of pure selfishness.

"I don't enjoy political infighting.

"Compared to others, I actually don't get a kick out of it.

"It is sad and depressing and too often I felt like I was a dispensable pawn in somebody else's stupid game.

"I did not sign up for that.

"My community and my electorate of Huon did not sign up for that either."

Growing community spirit

Following a very successful planting of 100 trees in August last year, the Kingborough Bahá'í community again donated and planted 100 Tasmanian native plants at Dru Point Bicentennial Park.

The morning began with a welcome to country by Kris Schaffer, an Indigenous horticulturalist and educator living in Muwinina Country in Neika, who spoke of how the land on which the park is situated has been cared for and sustained by the Palawa people for 150,000 years.

Ms Schaffer said that by donating and planting natives the Bahá'í community was helping to bring about a more sustainable future in harmony with the Palawa culture.

Sophie Appleton, speaking on behalf of the Bahá'ís of Kingborough, took up the theme of sustainability and said that that the Bahá'í teachings see humans as deeply interconnected with the natural world and everyone has a responsibility to protect it for future generations.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Aquatic centre beyond budget

Dear Editor,

I read with interest the article citing the Kingborough Sports Precinct Aquatic Centre Feasibility Study, which stated an aquatic facility catering for all the needs of the community is beyond current budget constraints.

Surely an important aspect of the study should have been to determine what type of aquatic facility is within current budget constraints?

Such a facility could then be developed as the community continues to grow.

I think it's a given the community would choose to have an aquatic facility that meets the majority of the communities wishes rather than no facility at all.

Many regional towns in Tasmanian and the mainland have outdoor pools with local populations significantly less than Kingborough.

With this in mind, and the rapid growth of Kingborough, I find it hard to believe constructing and operating such a facility is beyond current and projected budget constraints.

Dan Laver

Swimming pool questions

Dear Editor,

I find the fact that Kingborough Council is even considering a $40-million aquatic centre somewhat bizarre (Kingborough Chronicle, August 24).

Perhaps considering an aquatic centre was a 'moment of grandeur' inspiration, like the new five-million-dollar children's playground?

Or was it escalated from a modest swimming facility proposal initially to become a high-cost aquatic centre proposal, as a means of squashing the project entirely?

There is already a much-needed commercial public 20-meter swimming facility in Kingston.

However, Kingborough's population has grown massively in recent years with many younger adults and able older people desiring the great health benefits that can be gained from year-round high aerobic swimming that only an international standard-length pool can provide.

Perhaps the water playground scenario can be planned to be added later.

The waist lines of Australia's fattest state are much in need of shrinking.

Trees removed at Huntingfield House

Dear Editor,

I refer to Gennaro Mazzella's letter regarding the removal of the peppercorn and holly trees at Huntingfield House, published in the August 24 edition of the Kingborough Chronicle.

We understand your dismay Gennaro.

Many years ago, when staying with our grandparents, the trees were a magical part of our childhood, as was the convict-built well.

We would throw a pebble into the well to see how long it took to reach the bottom.

Unfortunately, much history has already been lost, such as the barn with the cross on top and dungeons underneath.

I urge those now developing this site to respect what is left before it is too late.

The entrance to Huntingfield House used to be to the left of the old oak tree, now opposite Mitre 10.

This tree would be over one hundred years old.

In the 1950's when we stayed with our grandmother, we used to shelter under it to catch the bus.

The fitter cousins and siblings used to climb it. It is a very special tree.

I hope the oak tree is healthy enough to not suffer the same fate as the other trees and that Huntingfield's incredible history will be safely protected for future generations to enjoy.

Christine Nelan

Seidel resigns over toxic politics

Dr Seidel stated that although politics wasn't a planned career path, he wanted to work harder for better health services and give back to the Huon Valley community, especially after losing his first wife unexpectedly from a brain haemorrhage in 2014.

Now remarried with two young children, Dr Seidel said he has not been there enough for them and is disillusioned about the cost to his family compared to what can be achieved in the political arena.

"They don't mind really as long as they know that my time away is filled with meaning for my community," Dr Seidel explained.

"They wanted me to make a difference.

"It is about standing up for what is right. "But my brief time in politics has left me disillusioned, bitter and just sad.

"There has to be virtue in politics but I just can't see it, and it is for that reason that I have decided to resign." Dr Seidel will continue in his role until the final sitting of Parliament on December 3.

His resignation from the Labor Party and as Shadow Minister for Health, Mental Health and Wellbeing and as Shadow Minister for Parks and the Environment was reluctantly accepted by Rebecca White.

"It is with great sadness and reluctance that I accepted Member for Huon, Dr Bastian Seidel's resignation," said Ms White.

"His departure is not just a loss to the Labor party but to the Parliament and the people of Tasmania.

"I understand Bastian's frustrations with the party and it is terrible that as a consequence of the events of the past few months Labor has lost someone of his credibility, calibre, dedication to the community and who has so much to offer public life in this state.

"Both before and during his political career, Bastian has made a significant contribution to public policy and I want to acknowledge and thank him for the huge amount of work he did to prepare and present Labor's health policies at the most recent election and for his hard work during the campaign.

"We will miss his thoughtful contributions and I wish him and his family well as they look towards the future," Ms White concluded.

Harmony with Palawa culture

Local artists Roza Brinkworth and Fahimeh Saatchi brought along a multimedia artwork created from recycled fabrics and natural materials, depicting a tree, to symbolize the growth of the Bahá'í community.

The artwork was hung as a backdrop to the barbecue lunch provided for everyone.

The area planted by the Bahá'í community is visible upon driving into the park at Dru Point and is a space designed for contemplation.

The plants, all Tasmanian natives, were selected by Kingborough Council and purchased from Redbreast Plants in Margate.

They include last year's flourishing line of black gums, Eucalyptus Ovata, planted next to the path leading down to the Aboriginal Reconciliation Garden and the waterfront.

The black gum provides a food source and habitat for the Swift Parrot, a threatened species which breeds only in Tasmania.

Last year's planting marked the 100th anniversary of the Bahai Faith's arrival in Australia and was organised with Bridget Jupe, Natural Areas Interpretation Officer at Kingborough Council, who also coordinated the planting on the day.

Boshra Yazahmeidi and Travis Thom enjoyed contributing to the community through the planting. (PS)

Smoke alarm saved lives in Margate

Five fire crews attended a blaze at Nierinna Road, Margate on Saturday, August 21.

Both volunteer and career fire fighters from Margate, Snug, Kingston, Sandfly and Hobart attended the site, which was already fully alight upon arrival, at approximately 8pm.

Fortunately for the two occupants, they were able to escape the home without injury, although the mostly timber structure was quickly and completely destroyed by the fire.

After a thorough investigation on the morning of Sunday, August 22, Regional Fire Investigator Tim McKay determined the cause of the fire was an electric blanket which started the fire in the main bedroom.

Mr McKay credited a working smoke alarm with saving the lives of the occupants and also encouraged the public to ensure all household appliances, including electric blankets, are in good working order and inspected regularly for defects.

Self-funded theatre from Kingborough locals

Nicholls Rivulet resident, Lisa Gormley, makes her directing debut in the Huon Valley with an upcoming theatre production A View From The Bridge, by Arthur Miller.

The production is supported by Huon Valley Theatre Inc, the place where Lisa's performing arts career began 24 years ago.

"Directing these excellent humans through this process has been one of the most exceptional experiences I have ever had," said Lisa.

"I can't wait to share it with you all in the beautiful Huon Valley."

The cast of excellent local Tasmanian performers have all worked with Lisa over the past five years via Lisa's training community Acting True, including former Kingborough resident and local identity, Matt Newell.

Matt is a cast member playing the role of Rodolpho.

"Working on A View From The Bridge has been an amazing highlight of 2021," said Matt.

"It is such a privilege to be performing this play, with this incredible cast in the Huon Valley, a place I have called home."

"This is my first full-length theatre production after dipping my toe into the theatre scene with Charlotte's Web as the narrator earlier this year.

"I live and breathe the Kingborough and Huon areas, and to perform in a place I love is something special that I will be able to cherish forever."

"My character is Italian; he has just arrived in New York seeking the 'American Dream'.

"Exploring life as an Italian man has been challenging, and so wonderfully rewarding.

"I have deeply explored the Italian culture and dialect of the Italian people and I simply cannot wait to share this story with you," Matt concluded.

The production is self-funded and is also running a GoFundMe to help cover their production costs including props, costumes, rights, venue and rehearsal hires and marketing.

The GoFundMe will also go towards paying creatives such as a composer, videographer and photographer along with the cast and director working for a minimum fee and a profit share basis.

It is essential to producer and director Lisa that creatives are paid for their skills, which they have spent years honing.

A View From The Bridge is a fast paced, expertly written play, full of wit and nuance which explores humanity in the shaken snow dome of a skeletal workers flat in Redhook, Brooklyn, USA.

Arthur Miller's tale takes audiences to the heart of love and desire, immigration and belonging, the rise of the feminine and the definition of masculinity.

A View From The Bridge will be performing at the Huonville Town Hall and the Cygnet Town Hall from October 1.

More information about the production and the GoFundMe can be found at www.actingtrue.com

Exhibiting local talent

West Winds Community Centre recently hosted the Vibrant themed exhibition, which ran from July 23 to August 20.

The exhibition featured 55 Vibrant entries from 33 artists which were displayed in the West Winds Art Lounge.

Members of the public who visited the exhibition were asked to vote for their favourite artwork.

Newly appointed Director at West Winds, Joanna Wiese was pleased to present the People's Choice Award to Angela McGaffin for her entry Vibrant Sea Crustaceans of Southern Tasmania.

The Art Lounge was launched in April 2015 in celebration of West Winds Community Centre's 25th anniversary and has hosted 58 exhibitions to date.

As of Tuesday, August 24, Hobart-based group Botaniko will have two consecutive exhibitions featuring stunning botanical artworks from September 1 until October 31.

The Art Lounge supports new and emerging artist as well as those well established.

Themed exhibitions run by West Winds attract a huge variety of artwork from artists, each interpreting the theme in their own unique way.

West Winds is currently calling for entries from artists for the upcoming Reaching Out exhibition, which runs annually as part of the community centre's Mental Health Week events.

This year's Mental Health Week theme is 'Awareness, Belonging, Connection' and entries are encouraged to incorporate this theme.

Entry forms are available from both West Winds Community Centre and the Woodbridge Post Office.

Audiences hooked on musical

Peter Pan: The Musical was a huge hit for the students and families at Channel Christian School with a bumper turn-out over four fun-filled sessions.

"I am so proud of our staff and parent volunteers who worked tirelessly with our incredible students to put on such an entertaining and professional performance," said school Principal Margaret Louw.

"Instead of our normal whole school production, we divided our performances into two age groups, Kinder to Year 2 and Year 3 to Year 6, due to our increased enrolments.

"We have just finished the performances by our younger students and they were absolutely brilliant.

"The main characters, such as Peter Pan, Tinkerbell, Wendy and Captain Hook, were shared between the students through the idea of children dressing up using props found in a big dress-up chest in the Darling families nursery.

"This gave every child an opportunity to shine and shine they did," Mrs Louw explained.

"It never ceases to amaze me how talented and brave young children can be when given the time and opportunity to learn new skills and share their God-given talents.

"One aspect of the show that I particularly loved was hearing their beautiful voices as they sang songs about hope and love, two of our school values."

In September, all the students from Channel Christian School in Year 3 to 6 will get their chance to shine.

"The older students will be acting and singing the same songs but instead of a music soundtrack accompanying the singing, much of the music will be performed by the students themselves in our band," Mrs Louw continued.

"We will also be looking forward to seeing the students get into their roles and enjoy the imagination and creativity which the story of Peter Pan allows them to experience.

"I look forward to hearing the band play along as the students perform and sing on stage."

Authentically Thai

Enjoy an authentic Thai dining experience this Father's Day at Kwanjai Thai.

Prior to 1940, the people of Thailand would greet one another by asking if they had eaten yet.

To some this may seem odd, but it sums up the Thai way of life perfectly as it revolves around enjoying and sharing delicious food.

Kwanjai Thai in Kingston share the philosophy.

Their dishes are for sharing and are made with the finest, locally-sourced ingredients.

Owner Zyndy makes it her priority to ensure dishes are cooked to perfection and guests are treated like family.

"We want guests to have a dining experience they won't forget," said Zyndy.

"It begins with the food.

"Authentic Thai recipes passed through the generations.

"And then there's the service, which is always with a smile."

Customers can choose to dine-in or select from a takeaway menu.

Delicious takeaway lunch deals are available Sunday through to Tuesday.

Kwanjai are a family-friendly restaurant offering a range of menu items for children.

Dads, tea and love

Tea is one of the simplest ways to show love and care.

Cups of tea warm hands on cool wintery days and provide soothing wellbeing benefits.

Stress, anxiety, and depression are in the news more so than ever.

We know a good cuppa can soothe many a worry, which is perfect for men who may be less vocal about how they are feeling.

Sharing a tea break can provide the opportunity to chat, and this can go a long way to reduce the stress people, including dads, may be feeling.

The Art of Tea have a range of herbal blends designed for reducing stress and helping with sleep, we know that not everyone enjoys the floral or fruity caffeine free options.

The Art of Tea suggest people swap one high-caffeine coffee a day with any tea, even black tea with around half the caffeine, to reduce anxiety.

"Most of our male customers love a traditional brew" said the Art of Tea owner Samantha.

"After 14 years in this business I know many really enjoy the classic black, breakfast or single estate teas.

"Some really love our strong Indian Chai packed with cinnamon, nutmeg, cardamon and other spices, whilst others select our robust Earl Grey."

Samantha understands tea customers who are traditional black tea drinkers through and through.

"I personally love Prince of Wales and our Premium Tasmanian Breakfast with milk", remarked Samantha.

"With over 130 varieties of tea to choose from, it's easy to find something for your dad, or a friend, or anyone you think might need a bit of a support."

Friendly staff advise on tea selection and gift voucher options at the Art of Tea from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday, at 6/3 Mertonvale Circuit, Kingston.

This Father's Day complimentary Chicken Wingettes are being offered to all father figures with the purchase of a meal at Kwanjai Thai in Kingston. (PS)

We are repairing the road surface on Davey Street

This is essential maintenance to strengthen and improve the condition and safety of the road and reduce ongoing maintenance costs. Please note that the section between Molle Street and Antill Street will be completed at a later time.

This project supports the delivery of projects within the Hobart City Deal.

Traffic changes

We will be working nights starting Sunday, 29 August 2021, between 6.30pm and 6.30am from Sunday to Thursday. Night time lane closures and reduced speed limits will be in place. Motorists should allow up to eight minutes extra travel time during the roadworks period.

Two lanes of traffic on Davey Street will remain open during nightworks.

Please follow speed limits and the directions of traffic controllers and signs. A reduced speed limit will also be in place during the day for the roadworks period.

Parking changes

There will be no street parking available in the work location. There will be signs to show where the No Parking / No Standing / Tow Away Zones are.

Any vehicles left parked and unattended in the work location during our working hours (overnight from 6.30pm to 6.30am) will be removed.

Bus changes

There will be some temporary, nightly disruptions to bus stops. Please follow your service provider's alerts and look for any local signage.

For more information about this project, visit transport.tas.gov.au.

Kingborough Park and Ride Facilities

We are building two park and ride facilities for the Kingborough region.

One will be built in Huntingfield near the Algona Road roundabout, and the other will be built on Browns Road in Firthside.

The park and ride facilities have been designed to be safe and inviting spaces, with better commuter parking and passenger transport services.

This supports the suite of projects within the Hobart City Deal.

Traffic changes

We will be working between 6am and 6pm from Monday to Saturday, starting with the Firthside facility on Monday, 16 August 2021. There will be lane closures and a reduced speed limit. Road users of Browns Road and Huntingfield Avenue should allow up to eight minutes extra travel time. Please keep to speed limits and follow the directions of traffic controllers and signs. No traffic impacts are anticipated to the Channel Highway, Algona Road Roundabout and Southern Outlet.

Parking changes

During construction there will be changed parking conditions.

Please allow extra time to park and follow the directions of traffic controllers and signs.

Bus changes

There may be some temporary disruptions to bus timetables and stops. Please follow your service provider's alerts and look for any local signage.

Southern Projects - Southern Outlet Transit Lane and Macquarie and Davey Streets Bus Priority

Have your say on bus improvement projects on the Southern Outlet and in the Hobart CBD

The Department of State Growth is seeking feedback on concept designs for the development of a transit lane on the Southern Outlet and the implementation of bus improvements on Macquarie and Davey Streets.

These projects will support more people catching public transport and create safer cycling and walking options.

Southern Outlet Transit Lane - development of a transit lane on the Southern Outlet between Olinda Grove and Macquarie Street.

Macquarie and Davey Streets Bus Priority - development of enhancements on Macquarie and Davey Streets for buses, cyclists and pedestrians.

To have your say on the concept designs from 31 August 2021 to 27 September 2021, head to our interactive map and survey at www.transport.tas.gov.au/southernprojects.

Your feedback will be used to inform detailed designs for the projects.

These initiatives are part of the Southern Projects, a suite of coordinated transport projects funded by the Tasmanian Government as part of the Hobart City Deal, to help make things better for you and better for Hobart.

The Tigers fought back and started to hit the scoreboard, narrowing the margin 17 to 22 by half time.

Clarence got away in the third quarter and grew their lead to 20 points.

By the final term, Clarence had done enough with the scoring slowed down, and they maintained their 21 point lead to beat the Tigers.

Hot pace for winter bowls competition

Round 4 of the seven round Tuesday Afternoon Fours Competition was completed in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club, with most of the games again illustrating how crucial the calling and winning of the Power Play end is.

Winning both games played in Round 4 were teams Baker, Family Affair, Hinkley and Mus.

Team Baker was also the biggest overall winner, with a combined winning score over the two games of 19 shots.

Results of play in Round 1 were Baker defeated McIlroy 18-3, Lee defeated Four Hands 12-3, Hemmings defeated Cawthorn 7-5, Palmer and Newbold played a draw (no score provided), Harra's Harem defeated Hickey 12-6, Family Affair defeated Schooling 6-4, Hinkley defeated Rosevear 11-8, and Mus defeated Chaffey 10-9.

In game two Rosevear and Lee drew six all, Hickey defeated Schooling 18-7, Family Affair defeated Harra's Harem 8-7, Newbold defeated Hemmings 9-2, Baker defeated Chaffey 11-7, Mus defeated McIlroy 17-4, Hinkley defeated Four Hands 10-9 and Cawthorn defeated Palmer 9-4.

The top six on the competition ladder have changed and Newbold have replaced Harra's Harem in top spot.

Both are equal on points, but Newbold have superior shots up.

Family Affair, skipped by Bruce Moran, has moved from fourth to third, and Hinkley has lifted from fifth to fourth spot.

Teams Baker and Chaffey make up fifth and sixth.

With the off-season winter competitions and activities drawing to a close, activities still continue to have the club operate at an active pace.

The Tuesday Afternoon Competition continues for the next three weeks, and the Saturday and Monday Random Draw sessions continue.

Various schools and colleges use the indoor centre on a regular basis for their sports days.

Since attending the centre in early July, the participants from Possability Tasmania have had regular visits to the club each week to enjoy their bowling activities.

With the new Pennant Season edging closer, official training for the Women's Thursday Pennant Competition team members commences in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre on Thursday, September 2, from 10am until 12 noon.

The barefoot bowls group are still attending each Thursday evening in the indoor centre and are looking forward to transitioning to the outdoor greens, weather permitting, once the greens are officially opened.

All the participants in this group are extremely happy with the progress they have made in their bowling skills and are enjoying the competition they take part in each week.

Any interested persons are invited to attend at 6pm each Thursday and join in these fun sessions.

Arrangements have also been organised for a group of club members to travel to the Bruny Island Bowls Club in early October to take part in a practice match there before the start of the Bowls Tasmania South Pennant Season.

Regular Darts Competitions have been held on Wednesday night at the Kingborough Bowls Club, as well as the Thursday evening Euchre Tournament, which takes place every week and a ukulele group meet and play at the club each Thursday afternoon.

Various community groups take advantage of the club facilities to hold various functions including birthday parties and even wakes.
