An historic day, closing the gap

A group of First Nations students from St Aloysius Catholic College travelled to Bruny Island to witness an historic event on Thursday, March 17,

In what was a special day for Tasmania, an abalone deed agreement was signed between representatives of the Tasmanian Aboriginal community and the Tasmanian Government, encouraging Aboriginal people to enter the fishing industry.

A total of 40 abalone quota units were signed over to the Land and Sea Aboriginal Corporation of Tasmania (LSACT), establishing a cultural fisheries program, allowing Aboriginal Tasmanians to fish abalone in a commercial way for cultural purposes.

Previously, fishing rights were limited to non-commercial, cultural purposes.

The three-year deed agreement allows for new economic relationships between Tasmanian Aboriginal people and the Tasmanian Government, to explore new ways to care for Sea Country under Aboriginal leadership.

LSACT chairman and palawa Elder, Rodney Dillion signed the deed agreement, returning the resources to Tasmanian Aboriginal people.

St Aloysius Catholic College, Aboriginal Student Success Teacher, Anne-Marie McWatters said the palawa students were "very proud of Uncle Rodney Dillion".

"A group of palawa students travelled to Bruny Island to witness the handing back of 40 abalone units to the Aboriginal community," wrote Anne-Marie McWatters.

"The children celebrated the historic day with Uncle Rodney Dillion and Dr Emma Lee, two Elders who have campaigned tirelessly for many years to help make this happen.

"Speeches were made before official documents were signed."

The Kingborough Chronicle wrote to Premier Gutwein on Wednesday, March 23, regarding significant fuel price differences observed locally.

"According to the Tasmanian Government's FuelCheck TAS app, the price of Unleaded 91 ranged between 227.9 and 229.9 cents per litre at three major chain fuel outlets in Kingston on Wednesday, March 23," noted this masthead.

"Meanwhile the price of fuel at the Independent Sandfly General Store was 210.0 cents per litre.

"Can the Premier please explain the difference?"

"How much do the major political parties, State and Federal, receive in donations from the major fuel companies?"

These questions officially went unanswered by the Premier, despite numerous attempts by the Kingborough Chronicle.

The Kingborough Chronicle also attempted to seek donations information from the Liberal Party, Secretariat and State Director, Peter Coulson.

According to the Australian Electoral Commission's transparency register and the Political Party Disclosure Return for the financial year 2020/21, the Liberal Party of Australia Tasmania Division received a total of $3,420,882 in cash and non-cash benefits from donors.

However, only donor details for 10 donations (totalling $260,000) were listed on the Disclosure Return by the Liberal Party of Australia Tasmania Division, as only donations above $14,300 (the reporting threshold) are required to be made transparent.

Hence the public are in the dark.

It is unknown if major fuel companies contributed to the more than $3 million given to the Liberal Party of Australia Tasmania Division in 2020/21.

Meanwhile, Tasmania's Shadow Minister for Consumer Affairs, Jen Bulter MP said the latest data from the ACCC proves petrol prices are much higher in Hobart than any other Australian capital city.

A new park and ride facility officially opened at Firthside on Thursday, March 24. The facility is one of two being built in Kingborough. Pictured Shane Dewsbury of Tassie Link, Minister for Transport and Infrastructure and Transport, Michael Ferguson MP and Kingborough Councillor Jo Westwood. Local MP Dean Winter says that while any improvements to public transport are welcome, parking for only 44 vehicles isn't enough to meet the needs of Kingborough's population. "Many people in Kingborough need to drive to a bus route to use public transport, so catching a bus is not viable unless they can find a park," said Mr Winter. (PS)

Fuel hike sparks free buses

Public bus travel is free in Tasmania for five weeks, with the temporary subsidy covering all fare types and running until the end of April.

As skyrocketing fuel prices have added to the cost-of-living pressures in recent weeks.

The subsidy aims to temporarily lessen the impact for commuters that can access public bus services.

"The Tasmanian Government heavily subsidises Metro and other private providers of public transport around the State", noted Minister for Infrastructure and Transport, Michael Ferguson.

"Heavily subsidised fares are already attractive when compared to the cost of running, insuring, maintaining and parking cars.

"Fares will be free across all operators, school buses and general access buses, and across all fare types (adult, concession and students).

"An adult travelling on a Metro urban Zone 1 trip will save $5.60 a day.

Minister Ferguson said, "higher fuel prices are due to global fuel market uncertainty".

"At this point, we see a temporary, highly attractive measure such as free bus travel as one option the Tasmanian Government can activate to ease cost of living pressures.

"Importantly, it also encourages Tasmanians who aren't already in the habit of catching buses.

"Congestion is assisted by this type of successful public transport "mode shift".

"The Government will ask Public Transport operators to monitor and assess services during this special initiative due to the potential for significant new demand.

"We also thank passengers in advance for their patience if their preferred service becomes busy, particularly during peak periods."

Premier for Tasmania, Peter Gutwein said in a media release on March 22 that overall support would review after April.

"If more assistance is needed, we will consider it," stated the Premier.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Return of Wilba the cat

Dear Editor,

The story Wilba is missing ran in the Kingborough Chronicle some weeks ago.

A cat named Wilba went missing after coming to live with us at Tinderbox, following the sudden death of his owner who was living on the North West Coast of Tasmania.

We were very worried that he may try to walk back to the North West Coast.

Various readers of the Kingborough Chronicle contacted me, with one lady telling me she was praying for the cat.

Harcourt's Kingston Beach printed fliers for us. About four weeks later Martin, who had seen Wilba's flier on a tree, phoned to say he had seen him.

We left food night and morning, but no luck. Then a week ago Gavin, who had received a flier in his letterbox, called.

Gavin had seen Wilba eating a roadkill rabbit on the verge. We went immediately.

It was definitely Wilba.

I called and he meowed but then ran away.

We left food night and morning, still no luck.

Then I remembered that Wilba loved prawns.

His North West Coast owner liked prawns, and whenever he had them Wilba would appear.

I bought some prawns.

I went up and unwrapped them, very soon Wilba appeared.

I sat still and called him.

He came and took a prawn from my fingers and let me stroke him.

It was easy to pick him up, put him in a cat carrier and bring him home.

Wilba had been missing for eight weeks.

I took him to the vet yesterday, he had lost one kilo in weight, had a small tick in one ear, yet was otherwise fine.

Thank you to Kingborough Chronicle and to the kind readers who wished us well.

Control dogs in public places

Dear Editor,

On Monday, March 21, I was jumped on by a large white dog by the name of Harry at the Kingston Beach Oval.

I froze, as I am afraid of large dogs.

A woman was calling him back but making no attempt to try to grab him.

I had clean trousers on.

I said, "He should be on a lead".

She replied, "Yes, he is not vicious".

I said, "We don't know that".

She then had the audacity to say, "Have a nice day".

Anyone smaller than me could have been knocked over.

Surely dogs should be on a lead in public places.

Woodbridge to meet for village road safety

A Woodbridge community meeting is to take place to discuss road safety in the village on Tuesday, April 5. The community are meeting in the Woodbridge Village Hall from 7pm and have invited Kingborough councillors, a Council engineer and a representative of the Tasmanian Department of State Growth.

Local resident Karen Montague said many local residents believe there is a problem with vehicle speed and visibility at the intersection of the Channel Highway, Woodbridge Hill Road and Jetty Road, and there is also a problem with vehicle speed on Woodbridge Hill Road.

“Recently one local resident erected signs in the village asking drivers to slow down to 30 in what is a shared zone,” explained Ms Montague.

“State Department of Growth posted in our local community news email, known as The Barwick Bugle, asking that the signs be removed as they were illegal and suggesting there were more appropriate ways of approaching the issue.

“Subsequently there were a number of posts in The Barwick Bugle reflecting differing opinions as to whether there is a problem or not.

“We are inviting members of the Council and Department of State Growth (to attend the meeting).”

Rob Pennicott from Pennicott Wilderness Journeys won two awards at the Qantas Australian Tourism Awards in Queensland. Noah, Mia and Michaye joined Rob in Queensland to help carry home the impressive trophies awarded for Major Tour and Transport Operator (Pennicott Wilderness Journeys) and Best New Business (Wilsons Promontory Cruises). “Thanks to our team of over 100 staff and all the guests that have supported us over 22 years since we started with Bruny Island Cruises in 1999,” said Rob Pennicott. Petrol price triggers unknown

In a media release on March 23, Ms Butler said at the start of the December quarter the average fuel price in the five largest Australian cities was 162.8 cents per litre, whereas Hobart was 12.2 cents higher at 175.

“Hobart was nearly 20 cents higher than Adelaide,” noted Ms Butler.

“Fuel prices have only skyrocketed since this time.

“The Gutwein Government has allowed petrol prices to soar and its promise of intervention remains broken.

“We have the highest fuel prices in the country and it is damaging our economy.”

Ms Butler’s statement triggered a media release from the Tasmanian Government, with Minister for consumer affairs Elise Archer MP, in which Ms Archer claimed “no such evidence exists” that the fuel price situation in Tasmania is out of step with mainland Australia.

“We will consider further action on fuel pricing, including legislation, should there be any evidence of Tasmania being excessively “out of step” with the rest of the country or in the event of price gouging, but to date, no such evidence exists,” stated Minister Archer.

The Kingborough Chronicle wrote to Premier Gutwein on March 23.

“Can the Premier please explain why fuel prices are significantly higher in Hobart compared with Adelaide and other Australian capital cities?”

“What is the trigger for intervention by the State Government?”

The Kingborough Chronicle wrote to Premier Gutwein again on March 24.

“Is the Premier happy for the community to be kept in the dark on the matter of major fuel company donations at this time?”

These questions remain unanswered.

Dr Emma Lee is an Associate Professor at Swinburne University, with research work spanning over 25 years on indigenous affairs, land and sea management, policy and governance of Australian regulatory environments.

“Palawa Elder, Dr Emma Lee, spoke to the students about the cultural significance of Sea Country and Uncle Rodney Dillon spoke to the group about the historical significance of the day,” noted Ms McWatters.

“The children ate some freshly cooked abalone and enjoyed sharing cake before spending time at Trumpeter Bay.

“The children enjoyed the excursion, especially the presence of local media and the ferry ride, when they saw the artwork by fellow student Carmela Harris, displayed on the top deck of the new SeaLink ferry.

“It was a wonderful, memorable day and a very special experience for our students.”

Year 5 student Archer McMeekin said it was “amazing to be part of such an historic day”.

“I’m so proud of how long Uncle Rodney fought to get our abalone rights returned,” said Archer.

“He never gave up.”

St Aloysius Catholic College Principal, Mr Eamonn Pollard, said St Aloysius is very proud of its ongoing, positive relationship with the Aboriginal community.

The historic event coincided with the National Close the Gap Day, which raises awareness around the health and life expectancy of indigenous people in Australia.

Closing the gap in early childhood development, schooling, housing and employment is recognised as central to closing the health gap.

The deed agreement allows Aboriginal people to develop skills in managing and governing abalone in new economic settings for their own cultural benefit.

Free trees for pardalotes

White gums, Eucalyptus viminalis, have been growing in Kingborough Council’s nursery to improve local habitats for the endangered forty-spotted pardalotes.

The plants will be free for eligible landowners in Tinderbox, Howden, Bruny Island and Oyster Cove.

Kingborough Mayor, Paula Wriedt said the endangered forty-spotted pardalote was only found in a few locations in Tasmania, most of which were in Kingborough.

“Forty-spotted pardalotes rely entirely on white gums as their food source,” noted Cr Wriedt, in a media release on March 24.

“In a new Council initiative, our Natural Areas and Biodiversity team have been growing white gums, Eucalyptus viminalis, in Council’s nursery.

“These plants will be free for eligible landowners in known forty-spotted habitat areas in the hope that we will be able to future-proof the populations.”

Residents of Tinderbox, Howden, Bruny Island or Oyster Cove who are interested in creating foraging habitat for forty-spotted pardalotes on their property are invited to provide contact details to Kingborough’s Natural Areas and Biodiversity team.

Achievement, responsibility and community learning

Term one saw the implementation of a new learning program at Kingston High School.

The Achievement, Responsibility, Community (ARC) program gives students opportunities to go out on work placements and to individualise their learning.

ARC has replaced the previous program called Big Picture. ARC students receive one-on-one support from a range of career planners and mentors.

Mae Niones assists students to set up workplace learning opportunities.

"ARC is a new design for learning, where the students learn by following their interests and passions with personalised learning plans.

"Part of the ARC design is providing students with opportunities to leave the school environment to gain real world experience.

"By having a mentor in a business or organisation with the same interests, students learn the necessary skills for the industry."

Ally, a Grade 10 student in the program said, "What Achievement, Responsibility and Community means to me is holding yourself to your own standards".

"Do work that you feel proud of and feel that you've achieved something, be responsible for what you do and try and make friends!

"I think community is my favourite part of it, as ARC gives me the chance to make connections with other people and I love that."

The reconstruction of A-Pod is another highlight for the new program.

The much-anticipated renovation included new classrooms for both ARC and Kingston High's Year 11 and 12 students, as well as new teacher offices and modified pod-learning spaces. The new facilities are being enjoyed by all staff and students.

"I like the layout" says Jon, a Grade 9 student.

With end of term exhibitions coming up, everyone is working hard and excited for the program to evolve and grow.

Gymnastics championships

Kingborough gymnasts have dominated events across all disciplines at the 2022 State Championship. Gymnastics titles held over the weekend of March 19 and 20.

Around 100 gymnasts travelled from seven clubs from across Tasmania to participate at the Kingborough Sports Centre.

Gymsports Management's Trampoline Team Leader, Ben Kelly, has provided the Kingborough Chronicle with the following summary of the weekend's highlights.

In the Men's Artistic Gymnastics, Ethan Loring won the overall Level 9 Open championship, as well as all six discipline gold medals, putting him in good stead for the upcoming 2022 Australian Gymnastics Championships in May.

In the Level 7 Open event, Jude Coburn was the overall champion, with team mates Kaelem Welsh winning pommel horse and rings categories, and William Lane winning on the parallel bars.

The Level 8 Open event saw 2021 national champion, Riley Fenn sustained an injury on vault, sidelining him from the competition, opening the door for team mate, Archie McKenna to win three of the six gold medals including floor, pommel horse and rings.

In the Women's Artistic Gymnastics, the Kingborough's Sarah Glancy was the overall State champion in the Level 9 division, with team mates Thea Dobie and Poppy Tunstall winning the overall gold medals in the Level 8 and Level 7 events respectively.

Kingborough also took out the gold medal in the Level 7 teams event, narrowly defeating Clarence for the gold medal.

Kingborough also won the women's Level 9 team event. In the Trampoline Gymnastics, Patrick Schluter won the senior international men's trampoline event.

Schluter's performances should place him in good stead for selection to the World Age Championships in November and a possible selection to his first senior World Cup in Italy in May.

Amber French won the senior women's international trampoline in her first step up from the junior ranks and is also vying for a position on the Australian team for the World Age Championships in November.

Axel Murden found himself atop of the podium twice in the junior international under 22 men's trampoline and double-mini tramp, with Billy French winning the junior international under 17 men's trampoline and Nicholas Kerr winning the junior international under 17 men's double-mini event.

Veteran, Damien Axelsen pulled through to win the senior men's double-mini tramp, defeating current junior national champions, Leuca McLeod and Callum O'Sullivan who finished in second and third place respectively in their first senior international competition.

Schluter teamed up with Matthew French to win the senior international synchronised trampoline, while Madison McCulloch and Avah Hughes convincingly won the junior international synchronised event.

Jacob Smith and Tristan Styles won the senior international and junior international under 22 men's tumbling events respectively; while Sam Leary won the youth international tumbling and McCulloch won the junior international under 17 women's competition.

In the youth international under 13 events, Campbell Norris was a triple gold medallist winning the individual trampoline, double-mini tramp and synchronised trampoline with team mate Jobe Stewart.

The gymnasts will now await selection announcement of the Tasmanian State Team whilst turning their attention to the 2022 Australian Gymnastics Championships being held in May at the Gold Coast Convention and Leisure Centre.

Ethan Loring won the Men's Artistic Gymnastics overall, Level 9 Open championship, as well as all six discipline gold medals at the 2022 Gymnastics Tasmania State Championships. (PS Pete Mellows)

History and cricket match in Woodbridge

Woodbridge Life 2022 celebrations continue, with a women's T20 exhibition match to be held on Sunday, April 3.

Organisers hope the match will raise the profile of women's cricket and trigger re-establishment of a local women's cricket competition in the Huon and Channel area.

Woodbridge Cricket Club Secretary Steve Jackson said the organisation is delighted to be hosting the event.

"We have worked closely with both Cricket Tasmania and the Huon and Channel Cricket Association in planning this event and it's great to see it all come together," said Steve.

A mix of players will make up the two T20 teams. Players from local clubs, including Kettering, Summerleas Eagles and Slab Road, will be joined by marquee players who have either represented Tasmania or are currently playing in the Premier League.

Players include Linsey DaCosta, Meg Phillips, Brooke Hepburn, Steph Daffara and Hannah Short.

The match will also be a reminder of the early days of women's cricket in the district when local resident Lily Poulett-Harris gained fame as a pioneer of women's cricket, playing for the Oyster Cove team.

Steve Jackson said it was appropriate that the club-rooms were recently named in her honour "signifying her role in promoting women's cricket in the State".

Author Jacqui Triffitt will add to the history link with her attendance and participation in the game.

Jacqui shall also be promoting her book On the Front Foot, The Rise of Tasmanian Women's Cricket.

Everyone is invited to come along and enjoy what promises to be an entertaining afternoon.

A barbeque, including free soft drinks and ice creams for the kids, is also on offer.

The match commences at 1pm and is due to finish by 4pm.

Laws to target repeat family violence offenders

A Bill tabled in the Tasmanian Parliament on Tuesday, March 22 amends the existing family violence legislation to target repeat offenders.

National and state data shows that a small percentage of repeat family violence offenders are responsible for most of the family violence offending overall, according to the State's Attorney-General, Elise Archer.

The Family Violence Amendment Bill 2022 will create a new serial family violence perpetrator declaration that will;

- affect a perpetrator's capacity to possess a firearm;
- direct the court to consider electronic monitoring and/or behavioural change program participation;
- affect future parole prospects; and
- be considered as an aggravating factor at sentencing for any subsequent family violence offences committed, amongst other mechanisms available to the courts to deter this type of behaviour," said Ms Archer.

"For a declaration to be made, a perpetrator will need to be aged 18 or older and have committed at least two indictable family violence offences, three summary-level family violence offences, or been convicted of the new crime of persistent family violence.

"These reforms will send a strong and clear message that this violent and criminal behaviour will not be tolerated in Tasmania, and ensure those who repeatedly commit family violence offences against a single partner, or multiple and successive partners, are held to account for their heinous actions.

"This delivers an important election commitment by our Government to provide a 'serial family violence perpetrator' declaration framework, and see Tasmania become the second Australian jurisdiction to implement this important protection.

"This will add to the significant reforms we have delivered in recent years to strengthen our laws to protect victim-survivors and eliminate family violence, including the reforms tabled in Parliament in recent weeks to introduce a stand-alone offence of non-fatal strangulation."

Pump track pumped up

Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Paula Wriedt has welcomed funding toward the Kingston Mountain Bike Park.

The park will provide the first public asphalt pump track in southern Tasmania.

A large asphalt track will be constructed and upgrades to the park will include building a shelter, table, seating and a bike rack.

Kingborough Council received $262,683 toward the project from the Tasmanian Government's Improving the Playing Field Grants program.

"Currently Kingborough has a small dirt pump track located at the Mountain Bike Park, next to the Kingston View Drive Dog Park," stated Cr Wriedt, in a media release on March 19.

"This funding will be used to upgrade the existing track and create a track that users of all ages and skills can enjoy."

"On top of the grant funding Kingborough Council will also be contributing $65,000 towards the facility."

"Due to its popularity the Council will also be investing in upgrading the carparking to accommodate the increase in usage."

"This is great news for all pump track enthusiasts and will be the first public asphalt pump track in southern Tasmania," said Cr Wriedt.

Pumped up, local mountain bike rider Alex, with Shredding Betties Mountain Bike Club's president Cathy, Kingborough Mayor Cr Paula Wriedt and Minister for Communities, Nic Street MP. (PS)

Victory for our shining Knights

The Kingborough Knights 2nd Grade team came home with a 17-run victory against New Town Bucks in the final game of the Cricket Tasmania Premier League season, on Saturday, March 26, at New Town Oval.

Riley Backhouse was awarded the Player of the Final. Kingborough District Cricket Club reported that after winning the toss and electing to bat, the Knights 2 XI set New Town a total of 200 to win. Riley Backhouse (101) and Mitch Backhouse (31) were the Knights main run scorers. In reply, the rivals looked dangerous until Knights' bowlers, Baker (4/27) and Scott (3/45), made sure the Bucks were bowled out for 182. Meanwhile, the Kingborough Knights 3rd Grade team tied in the final game of the Cricket Tasmania Premier League season, on Saturday, March 26, at the KGV Oval. The Kingborough club report that after winning the toss and electing to bat, the Knights 3 XI made 7/225 in their 50 overs, including "a 104-run partnership between White (46) and Ratcliffe (91)". "In reply, Glenorchy struggled early to contain our bowlers (Holland 5/42 and Street 2/43), but they eventually found their rhythm," noted the Kingborough Knights Facebook post. "Needing 8-runs for victory in the final over, Glenorchy could only manage 7. "Resulting in the match being tied and Glenorchy being crowned champions due to finishing higher on the ladder."

A surprise for our premier bowlers

Saturday pennant competition

Kingborough's top of the ladder Premier Division team suffered a surprise loss against Beltana in the Bowls Tasmania South final round of rostered Saturday games on March 19. Beltana, who were not in contention to play in the finals, won overall by 10 shots, 84 shots to 74. Kingborough won only one of the four rinks played. Will Coad with Callum Dinning, Shane Garth and Robert O'Neill played on Kingborough's winning rink, 30-13. As the result of the overall loss, Kingborough dropped to second place on the ladder to Rodman Glenorchy Bowls Club. Meanwhile, Division 1 kept their second place on the ladder when they defeated the visiting Oatlands Bowls Club team at Margate. The game, played on grass, saw the home side defeat Oatlands overall, 87-72. Tony Clark and his rink of Conrad Westhead, Daniel Holland and Michael Steele had a good 31-10 win. Meanwhile, Mark Crawford with Ken Du Bois, Lynn Barlow and Tony Verrier also performed well, winning 25-14. Division 3 also hung onto second place on the ladder with an excellent overall 97-57 win against Glenorchy City Bowls Club.

This was also a home game for the Kingborough team, winning on three rinks and drawing the fourth. Greg Riley and his rink of Ann Hinkley, Geoff Price and Terry Thompson led the way, winning 33-11. Also with a strong win was Fred Shead with Pauline Connell, Roger Duggan and Nadine Seabourne (25-10). Anthony Sculthorpe with John Iles, Vicki Bannister and Bruce Moran got up 20-17 and Mike Westlake with Mark Drake, Brock Bricknell and Allen Sculthorpe drew 19-19. Division 4 managed to hang onto their third place on the competition ladder when they travelled away to the Cremorne Bowls Club. Cremorne have not lost a game on their synthetic home fortress this season and unfortunately this remained the case when they defeated Kingborough overall by 50 shots, 110-60. Cremorne won on all four rinks played. Pat Lee and his rink of Judy Traill, Lee Shead and Stuart Traill got in striking distance, only going down by three shots, losing 20-23. Division 5 finished in fourth place on the ladder after they travelled away to the North Hobart Bowls Club, coming away with a good result. They defeated their hosts overall, 70-47. Outstanding win of the day went to the rink of Peter Kirby with Gordon Hynes, George Rahmanovic and Bill

Reeve, winning 35-8. Paul Bricknell with Lillianne Bricknell, Michael Harris and Nicole Bricknell won 22-16. Division 7 had a disappointing end to the season after a long road trip to Nubeena to play at the Tasman Bowls Club. The home team defeated them overall 47 shots to 31. Kingborough won on one of the two rinks, played with Michael Cawthorn with Ian Cockshutt, Tom Ferguson and Tyler Forsyth getting up 21-18. Division 7 finished their season in 8th place on the competition ladder. Bowls Tasmania South Finals The first round of the Bowls Tasmania South Finals competition saw Kingborough's Division 3 team playing in the qualifying semi-final against the visiting Orford Bowls Club team. Kingborough had qualified for the home semi-final due to their first place position on the ladder. Weather gremlins came into play, with cold and fluctuating windy conditions on a damp slow green from the previous days rain. The windy conditions early in the game appeared to favour the home team, however as the wind subsided the Orford team took control on two of the three rinks, winning overall, 61-55. Fred Shead with John Iles, Robert Stanton and Bruce Moran won on their rink, 24-13. Division 3 will have a second chance when they play in the preliminary final on Wednesday, March 30, against Claremont Bowls Club, with the winners to enter the elimination semi-final against North Hobart. Women's pennant competition, Thursday, March 24 Kingborough's Division 1 team found the going tough at Sandy Bay against their hosts in a qualifying semi-final for the Thursday women's pennant competition. The ladder-leaders Sandy Bay defeated Kingborough overall, 72-42. The Kingborough's rink of Sue Clark, with Lee Shead, Kerrie Lane and Laura Best drew 18-18. Kingborough's Division 1 has another chance to progress to the grand-final when they meet the winner of the elimination final, Howrah, in a preliminary final. Division 4 qualified to play in the grand-final after defeating Sorell in the qualifying semi-final. The game was played at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club at Margate and saw the home team defeat Sorell overall by 10 shots, 58-48. Jean Hemmings with Anne Palmer, Margaret Thorp and Dorothy Peterson won 21-10 and Elaine Cockshutt with Janene Stubbs, Nona Clark and Dorothy Cupit won 22-11. Division 4 will play the winner of the preliminary final between Sorell and Claremont.
