

The Kingborough Helping Hands Sharing Tree was officially opened on Friday morning, November 25 at Channel Court Shopping Centre. The tree is located in front of Woolworths and welcomes the community to donate Christmas gifts to local families in need this Christmas. "Last year we gave away 1500 gifts including 250 hampers worth $100 each and 180 gift packs for the elderly," said Edna Pennicott, President of Kingborough Helping Hands. "There is way more demand this year already, people are doing it tough. However, we are confident we will get it done, and give Christmas gifts to all those in need." St Aloysius students helped officially open the Sharing Tree by cutting the ribbon and Kingborough Councillors, politicians, businesses, community groups and locals were in attendance to donate the first gifts under the tree. Saunders & Ward celebrates 100 years

Saunders & Ward is a Tasmanian engineering company that has been operating in Hobart since 1922, making it one of the longest continuously running engineering businesses in Australia.

It's still family owned and operated today, spanning three generations.

The company was founded by Bert Saunders, a British engineer working in India on various hydroelectric power schemes at the beginning of the 20th century.

In 1922, Bert and his business partner Victor Ward bought A.B. Buyers Engineers in Montpelier Retreat, Battery Point and founded Saunders & Ward.

Victor retired in 1929, leaving the business in the hands of the Saunders family.

Saunders & Ward has since moved base to Kingston where it has grown to be a major steel fabrication and general engineering business.

The company has been involved in such projects as the construction of the central staircase at Mona and in conservation projects at Port Arthur Historic Site and the West Coast Wilderness Railway.

Saunders & Ward today is owned by Bert's grandsons, Nick and Jamie.

Nick attributes the company's longevity to the talent and skill of his loyal staff.

"Many of our staff have been with us for many years, and being a family business, we have formed close relationships," he said.

"Under the leadership of Ben Rolliston our General Manager and the Saunders family's guidance we are confident that Saunders & Ward will continue to provide a valuable service to Tasmania's industries."

Questions on transit lane

A transit lane for the Southern Outlet was endorsed by the Parliamentary Committee on Public Works on Friday, November 25.

The project is set to commence in 2023.

The Committee's Report represents further support for the project following the endorsement of the Tasmanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Royal Automobile Club of Tasmania and, most recently, the Mayor of Kingborough, Paula Wriedt.

A key choke point on the Greater Hobart network is the Southern Outlet in-bound on weekday morning peaks.

The Southern Outlet transit lane, available for buses, emergency vehicles and multi-occupant private vehicles, will provide the extra lane capacity needed to provide travel time reliability for users.

Minister for Infrastructure and Transport Michael Ferguson said "I have repeatedly said that the Government would minimise property acquisitions for the T3 transit lane on the Southern Outlet, notwithstanding the large number of properties that were compulsorily acquired and demolished in the 1960s to build the link through the suburb of Dynnyrne".

"I was pleased that the Committee was satisfied by the evidence presented by senior officers of my Department before the Parliamentary Committee on Public Works as well as myself to answer questions in relation to the sequencing of the individual projects under the program of works, as well as noise mitigation measures and the construction methodology," Mr Ferguson said.

"The Tasmanian Government is now moving forward with planning for the transit lane as the only solution to ease traffic congestion on the Southern Outlet."

Labor questions the cost of widening the Southern Outlet, a project which is estimated to take 20 months.

Franklin MP Dean Winter says widening the road at Dynnyrne won't work without other congestion-easing measures in place.

"An extra lane in one spot will just push the problem closer to the city," Mr Winter said.

"People in the south of the state will pay dearly for this Government's fixation on a single project that won't work on its own."

Mr Winter pointed out one in 10 Tasmanians now live south of Hobart.

Local bottlenecks such as the Algona Road roundabout in Kingston also need urgent upgrades.

"Whilst we accept that the Committee has finalised their technical approval of the project and cost, I am still of the view that the fifth lane will do little to resolve traffic congestion on the Southern Outlet," Franklin MP David O'Byrne said.

"There's still no coherent plan to deal with the bottleneck at the top of Macquarie and Davey Streets, and public transport services will not resolve this congestion without a network-wide plan."

"The fact that this Minister couldn't even build appropriate shelter at the new $6 million Huntingfield park and ride facility does not fill me with great confidence that he and his department can deliver the outcomes the community are desperate for."

Restore memorials

Dear Editor,
I refer to the letter from Leigh Higgins, published in the Chronicle of November 22 and respond on behalf of the Channel RSL Sub Branch.

Our members are aware of the poor state of repair of the Margate Oval War Memorial, as well as deficiencies with several other memorials in the Channel District.

We are planning a program of improvements, subject to the approval of the landowners on which the memorials are constructed and the availability of DVA administered grant funding.

Council owns the Memorial at Margate Oval and is aware of our intentions.

No celebration

Dear Editor,
I was intrigued to see last week's article "Men's Shed encourages blokes to speak up" from Channel Men's Shed.

International Men's Day was held on Saturday, Nov 19, an ideal time for all sheds to encourage men to get together.

Various sheds around our state and across Australia celebrated the day with social gatherings and as a member I had expected to receive some sort of information about the day and what our shed was planning to do.

Unfortunately nothing was forthcoming and the shed committee obviously decided it was not important enough for their members to be involved.

Placing a plagiarised rehash of Mike Gaffney's word in the Chronicle is hardly a "celebration".

Ross Thomas,
Margate

Stitch and share the dignity

With the giving season on the horizon, Kingborough's Stitch and Share joined in Share the Dignity's annual It's in the Bag campaign.

Share the Dignity is a charity that supports women and girls experiencing homelessness, fleeing domestic violence or living it rough.

It's in the Bag is a Christmas appeal that encourages everyday Australians to put together bags filled with essential items (and maybe some luxury items) to donate to those in need.

The filled bags are then dropped to any Bunnings store nationwide between November 18-27.

The local Stitch and Share group put together an impressive 21 bags to donate to women and young girls in distress.

"Stitch and Share was originally started as a friendship group to enable ladies from the Channel area to get to know like-minded people," member Christine Larratt said.

The group has since grown in size and ambition to offer a place for its members to socialise, share recipes, sew and support a range of organisations.

Since 2016, Stitch and Share has donated 11,500 goodies to deserving charities and people in need.

They also donate money and on occasion run stalls to raise funds to help where they can.

Stitch and Share meet almost every Monday between 1.30pm to 3.30pm at the Kingborough Bowls Club.

The local Stitch and Share group put together 21 bags to donate to women and girls in need.

The $20 million investment will expand Hobart's commuter ferry service by constructing on-water terminals at new locations on the River Derwent. (PS)

Derwent Ferry expansion

The Greater Hobart Mayors have welcomed the Australian Government's $20 million commitment to the expansion of the Derwent Ferry Service.

Mayor Brendan Blomeley (Clarence), Mayor Bec Thomas (Glenorchy), Acting Lord Mayor Helen Burnet (Hobart) and Acting Mayor Clare Glade-Wright (Kingborough) said it was pleasing to formally secure the funding, first pledged by Labor in the lead up to the Federal Election earlier this year.

"This investment is an important first step in the expansion of the ferry network across Greater Hobart," said Cr Glade-Wright.

"We welcome the Australian Government's support for Kingborough to be part of the long-term vision for the network."

We're regrowing Tasmania's forests

Regeneration is how we manage Tasmania's production forests for the future. That's why last year, we prepared more than 6,300 hectares for regrowing and sowed 117 million seeds.

Kingston High student wins Poem Forest competition

Red Room Poetry’s annual Poem Forest competition has Australian students and teachers write and enter poems with an environmental focus to make positive climate change.

For each poem entered in the competition, a tree is planted.

Last year 5000 trees were planted.

Year 10 Kingston High student Hannah Fairbrother won first prize for her poem, “In The Valley”.

“The Valley is where I live,” Hannah explained of her poem.

“The area was named Lowanna Karu prior to European invasion.

“I chose the valley as my subject because I know the land so well and care deeply about protecting it, ensuring it is still as wild as possible for everyone who calls it home.”

Hannah hopes that more people will be encouraged to make their own change and suggests that people could “engage with local care groups... support climate action... reduce plastic waste, drive less or car share”.

*In the valley, the wattles drip with yellow,
Revealing patches of old farmland
Where mother nature has reclaimed the slopes.*

*In the valley, the currawongs leave for kunanyi,
After sheltering in the creek for winter,
They’re ready for the cliffs again.*

*In the valley, wedge tail eagles balance
On the warm updrafts, they glide
Keenly watching the land below.*

*Winter rains leave grasses green,
Eucalypts reveal new growth
Young branches reaching up towards the sun.*

*But beyond the green pockets
Nestled under the mountain,
Rhythms are changing and Cycles are slipping
Out of alignment.*

*The future of the valley,
The future of the planet,
Is up to us.*

Cooke Inc announced the completion of its acquisition of Tassal last week on Monday, November 21. “We are thrilled to be joining the Tasmanian aquaculture industry and look forward to welcoming Tassal’s 1,700 employees to the Cooke family of companies,” said Glenn Cooke, CEO of Cooke Inc. CEO of Tassal Mark Ryan said “We’re looking forward to becoming part of the Cooke family of companies and sharing the best of what our industry has to offer”.

Safeguarding our schools

The Tasmanian Liberal Government has appointed a Safeguarding Lead in every public school as of Friday, November 21.

Employed as part of the Student Wellbeing Team, Safeguarding Leads will plan and implement risk-management strategies to support the wellbeing of students.

Creation of the Safeguarding role was a key recommendation of the Independent Inquiry into the Tasmanian Department of Education’s Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

Past failures in safeguarding were also the focus of the Commission of Inquiry hearings.

The Safeguarding Leads are being implemented as part of a wider approach to further develop systems, practices and professional learning to make schools safer, to better equip teachers and principals to proactively identify risks and act on them.

The resulting safeguarding system operates as a statewide network, ensuring that the same safeguarding principles and practices are in place across all of schools.

$26.1 million has been committed over four years from 2022-23 to support this initiative.

This initiative is part of a broader $36.4 million commitment over four years, with $12 million ongoing, to support the continued work of the Office of Safeguarding Children and Young People, which was established following the release of the Inquiry’s recommendations.

Timeless and captivating

Nestled into an established homes part of Kingston Beach is this appealing three bedroom townhouse.

The home is one of a four unit development and enjoys a secluded position at the rearmost section of the property. Largely untouched since it was constructed in 1983, the property has a charm and peaceful ambience that is often missing in many contemporary constructions. The ground floor comprises living room, dining area and kitchen as well as the laundry and an adjoining separate toilet. A small breakfast bar as well as the dining alcove offers versatility for meals. Off the mezzanine are three well-proportioned bedrooms all with built-ins as well as the bathroom. One bedroom is currently set up as a home office with a built-in desk and bookcase. The bathroom, with toilet, vanity and large shower, has a double entry from two connecting bedrooms, one of which is the master. The gardens surrounding the home are beautifully planted and shelter the property from neighbours. Overall this is a really special home for someone who is looking for a unique townhouse in a good homes area. The bonus is the townhouse is close to the beach as well as the shopping centre, schools, places of worship and services of Kingston itself with public transport nearby.

Listen up for better hearing

When you start to notice trouble hearing, it's time to think about hearing aids.

Nick Modrovich, local audiologist at Ability Hearing and Balance, presents a two-part hearing aid buying guide.

Here are some common complaints from patients who transfer to their clinic:

"Hearing aids are in the drawer – they made everything too loud."

This is a common problem with hearing aid programming – lots of hearing aids are set too loud for new users.

An experienced audiologist can find the programming sweet spot without making the hearing aids too loud.

"I spend thousands on hearing aids years ago and they didn't work."

The cost of hearing aids doesn't always represent whether they are suitable for your specific hearing needs.

For example, invisible hearing aids do not perform as well in background noise when compared to hearing aids with directional microphones.

Invisible hearing aids are an 'easy sell' due to their cosmetic appeal.

If you decide on one, make sure you understand what you are foregoing in terms of performance in social listening situations.

Local audiologist at Ability Hearing and Balance in Channel Court Mr Nick Modrovich will help you avoid buyer's regret for your first hearing aid purchase. (P5)

Ability Hearing and Balance's take-home hearing aid trials provide an obligation-free approach to ensure that patients are happy with their long-term purchases.

Part two of their buying guide will look at getting the best deal on hearing aids.

FISHER & Paykel French Door Fridge/Freezer, 569L (Model RF610ADX5). Here's your chance to score a huge bargain. The fridge we bought for our new home was too big for the cavity provided. Unfortunately, the retailer we bought it from wouldn't swap it and we ended up using the fridge for a couple of weeks while we waited for a suitable replacement. This fridge is absolutely unmarked and brand new, in fact it still has the protective film and stickers on the doors. We paid over $2,400 for it and we'll take $1,200. If you're interested, please call Victor on 0417 310 443.

Kingborough gives a lesson in bowls

Division 1 bowlers Pauline Connell and Nadine Seabourne nervous about their Skip Leonie Price's bowl as it enters the head during game against Glenorchy City. (PS)

In the Bowls Tasmania South Pennant Competition played on Saturday, November 19 several of the Kingborough Bowls and Community teams dominated play in their games, coming away with sensational overall wins.

The Premier Division team travelled away to the Beltana Bowls Club at Lindisfarne where they won on three of the four rinks played and drew on the fourth for 53 shots overall win, defeating their hosts 103 shots to 50 shots.

Division 1 played at home in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre against the visiting Glenorchy City Bowls Club team.

Even though Glenorchy City have a synthetic green at their club, the Kingborough team gave them a lesson in bowls on the indoor synthetic, defeating the visitors overall 101 shots to 57 shots.

Division 6 Blue did not fare well when they travelled away to the difficult synthetic green at the Cremorne Bowls Club.

Cremorne defeated them overall 66 shots to 44 shots, with Kingborough only managing a win on one of the three rinks played.

Kingborough's winning rink was Ray Palmer with Fiona Hickey, Bill Mus and David Freeman 20-16.

Division 6 Red had a tussle when they played on grass at Margate against the visiting team from the Taroona Bowls Club.

Kingborough won on one of the three rinks played and drew on a second, defeating the visitors overall by two shots, 58 shots to 56 shots.

In the Wednesday Mid-week Competition, three of Kingborough's four teams came away with wins on the day.

Division 1 hosted the visiting team from the Orford Bowls Club at Margate.

They defeated the visitors on all three rinks played for an overall 71 shots to 56 shots win.

Division 2 travelled away to the New Norfolk Bowls Club where they did not have a good day in the strong wind.

Division 2 had a day to forget when they travelled away to the Brighton Bowls Club where they were defeated by their hosts 80 shots to 44 shots, with Brighton winning on all three rinks played.

Division 3 had a good day in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre when they played against the visiting Howrah Bowls Club team.

The home team won on all three rinks played, defeating the visitors 67 shots to 44 shots.

Each season Bowls Tasmania conducts a statewide challenge round robin competition between Bowls North, Bowls Northwest and Bowls Tasmania South in Open, Seniors (over 60) and a Juniors section.

Three rounds are played each season – one in each region.

Points for all games are cumulated with good cash prizes paid to the winning overall regions.

The Open section of this event will be held on Sunday, December 4 at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club at Margate, starting at 9.30am.

Six bowlers from the Kingborough Bowls Club have been selected to play the two Southern teams.

They are Ryan Guy, Nic Courto, Nathan Dinning, Jason Fowler and Brent Forsyth as well as the Kingborough Greenkeeper Andrew Norris who plays for the Sandy Bay Bowls Club.
