

The Kingston Beach RSL Sub-Branch have upgraded the Kingston Beach war memorial with three new sandstone panels. New war memorial

A new war memorial was unveiled at Kingston Beach last week.

Three sandstone panels have been installed to replace the Gallipoli marker.

The Governor of Tasmania, Her Excellency the Honourable Barbara Baker AC officiated the dedication service.

A committee from the Kingston Beach RSL Sub-Branch worked hard to have this new memorial installed, successfully applying for a $5000 Teddy Shehan VC

Memorial Grant.

"While all members of the Sub-Branch committee have worked towards the construction of the memorial it would be remiss not to mention David Taylor, our immediate past Secretary," Vice-President Peter Blackburn said.

"He was Secretary for many years and had carriage of a lot of the planning and liaison for the memorial.

"Without his tireless efforts it is doubtful that we would have succeeded."

Peter Blackburn thanked Kingborough Council for their involvement.

"Kingborough Council has supported our efforts and has conducted public consultation both about the location and design of the memorial," Peter said.

"They also constructed the base for the memorial.

"The Kingborough community has been unstinting in their support through donations and purchase of memorabilia."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Stolen safety mirror

Dear Editor,

The safety mirror which I had spent time, effort and money on to install on the roadside wall at the end of my driveway that connects with busy Summerleas Road at Kingston between Channel Highway and Huon Highway has been removed.

The perpetrator(s) trespassed on my property and removed the mirror and frame, leaving behind one of the screws and its wall plug.

The safety mirror assisted me with visibility, so I had warning and time whilst going on the driveway which is steep and sharply U-turns, then continues running parallel to the road.

The mirror is extremely helpful, especially during the particularly demanding process of getting along the wheelchair containing my near-adult mentally and physically disabled daughter, during which the additional weight and size of it all makes me slower and less agile.

The safety mirror on my property was visible when on my property and to traffic going along the opposite side of the road, but was not visible to traffic going along the road beside my property.

Trees are obstructions on the nature strip on one side of the driveway.

Repeatedly the sign on a nearby traffic island has been knocked flat then later replaced.

There is a safety mirror further along the road, high on a pole at the entry to the walking path, which has not been removed.

Please could the safety mirror be returned, as without it there is reduced safety and more risk of damage to objects and people, which I wouldn't want to happen.

Would the person(s) who removed the safety mirror want that to happen?

Enjoying humble pie

Dear Editor,

I grizzle often, but recently I had an opportunity to eat a few slices of humble pie.

For several months, a neighbour has experienced storm water flooding often.

After a little discussion, we and another neighbour decided we should phone Kingborough Council.

One of us phoned at about 9am on Monday morning.

By 10am, a truck and several men in orange jackets had arrived, removed an inspection cover, and were confirming our suspicions.

They advised that it was a big problem and that they'd need a bigger truck, and it might be next week before they could fix anything.

We were a bit surprised when at 9am on Thursday morning, an impressively big truck appeared and several men in orange jackets began fixing the problem.

The gadgets they wound out of the back of the truck were impressive too.

By lunch time, the problem had been fixed.

Humble pie can be quite enjoyable.

Belongings back please

Dear Editor,

Recently I spent a couple of months in the Mary Hutchinson Women's Prison.

During my stay I received mail from many people including unwell loved ones, made lots of artwork and cards for my friends and family, and collected handouts on courses I participated in jail like Girls can be Heroes and Relationships Australia.

I was released on bail recently and have been trying to retrieve my possessions from prison ever since.

The prison told me that they have lost everything and this is simply not good enough.

What sort of legal system loses people's personal possessions?

Is it because they don't care about the inmates, or because they are too disorganised to keep track of them?

I would like my belongings back, it's not that hard.

Recognising our extraordinary locals

Sajini Sumar has been a recipient of many community awards, including being inducted into the Honour Roll of Women in 2005, and being selected as a People of Australia ambassador in 2012.

Clair Harris founded Tassie Mums at her kitchen table in 2018, and it has since grown to assist more than 1800 children each year with clothing, nappy packs, prams and more.

Last year's winter coat and pyjama drive collected more than 800 coats and vests and 600 pairs of pyjamas to distribute to children in need.

Tassie Mums also help schools with new socks and underwear.

Sajini and Clair are two of 133 people being recognized across all Australian states and territories.

The Tasmanian award recipients will be announced on Friday, November 10 in a ceremony at Princes Wharf No. 1.

"The nominees for the Tasmania awards are extraordinary people whose achievements and contributions are to be applauded," said National Australia Day Council CEO Mark Fraser.

"From research with global impact, through lifelong commitment to bringing about change, to new ways of connecting people in need, they are an inspirational group of Tasmanians."

Clair Harris has been nominated the Tasmanian Local Hero Award for her work as the founder of Tassie Mums. (PS)

Kingborough Mayor Paula Wriedt invites the Kingborough community to stop by for some great food, music, roving children's entertainers, street performers and the 7HOFM breakfast team.

"Saturday, November 18 is all about enjoying the new CBD that has been created for the community," Cr Wriedt said.

"There will be musicians and buskers, free face-painting, Social Circus, children's entertainment by Mr Shaggles and a live broadcast from 7HOFM with the brekkie team, Sarah, Mick and Johnno.

"We have spot prizes to give out on the day so grab your friends and family and head down to our street celebration for a bite to eat and free entertainment.

"There will be a chance to learn some skills with Social Circus and listen to some of Kingborough's newest and most talented performers.

"We are very proud of how the street is looking and this celebration will be a great way to enjoy the space, support the businesses and see some great entertainment.

"The upgrades have improved the cycling facilities, created new greener areas and produced some fantastic outdoor dining spaces for cafés and restaurants along the Channel Highway.

"The CBD upgrade was funded through the State Government's City Deal with a $7.9 million grant," Cr Wriedt said.

Remembrance Day

On Remembrance Day, we gather to remember the sacrifices of many ordinary Australians caught up in extraordinary events throughout our history.

At the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918, the guns fell silent on the Western Front.

Now, at that time each and every year, we unite in a minute of solemn reflection to pay tribute to all those who have served our nation.

More than 4200 people in the electorate of Franklin are either currently serving or former Australian Defence Force service people.

This Remembrance Day we remember the fallen, we remember those they left behind and all who have served Australia over more than a century in war, in conflict and as keepers of peace.

This year marks 50 years since the end of Australia's involvement in the Vietnam War, Australia's longest conflict of the 20th century.

For their service and the sacrifices of their families, we say thank you.

To acknowledge the 50th anniversary, the Department of Veterans Affairs has produced a commemorative medallion and certificate of commemoration available to every Vietnam veteran and the families of Vietnam veterans who have passed away.

For more information visit the Department of Veterans' Affairs website.

Kingston Primary School was able to hold its K-2 athletics carnival this week after its postponement thanks to the support of parents. The school said thank you to teachers, teacher assistants, parent volunteers and spectators for making the day spectacular. (PS)

Southern garage sale trail

The Garage Sale Trail is happening on November 11-12 and 18-19, Australia-wide.

In southern Tasmania there will be garage sale trails in Kingborough, Brighton, Clarence, Derwent Valley, Glenorchy, Hobart, Sorell and Tasman municipalities.

The Southern Tasmanian Regional Waste Authority (STRWA) has encouraged southern councils, including Kingborough, to participate in the Garage Sale Trail program.

STRWA has been established to coordinate local government's resource recovery and management of solid waste in southern Tasmania.

They are focused on ensuring less waste goes to landfills by reducing the waste generated in the region, re-using as much as possible and increasing recycling efforts.

Garage Sale Trail is Australia's festival of pre-loved stuff, dedicated to helping you extend the life of your purchases and find the ultimate pre-loved gem.

The Garage Sale Trail is Australia's festival of pre-loved stuff, dedicated to helping people extend the life of their things and find the ultimate pre-loved gem.

Last year, more than 300,000 Australians shopped or sold at more than 15,000 garage sales.

Together, they extended the life of over three million kilograms of stuff, saving these items from landfills and maximising the value of all the energy and resources that go into making the stuff we buy.

Kingston Beach Handmade Market coordinators Oby and Patricia are grateful for the support of the local community. On November 12, the market will celebrate its 11th anniversary with prizes for some lucky visitors. (PS)

Handmade Market turns eleven

The Kingston Beach Handmade Market is celebrating its eleventh anniversary and extended its thanks for all the support it has received from customers and visitors over the years.

The market can be found in Kingston Beach Hall, a quick walk from the water, on the second Sunday of the month.

The hall is a magnificent space, and the surrounding businesses contribute to the bustling Kingston Beach community.

The market features some great Tasmanian artists and craftspeople and supports and encourages new stallholders to display their talent.

The coordinators Oby and Patricia enjoy decorating the stage at the hall for each market with flowers and props and create a great atmosphere for the shoppers and the stallholders.

Because of the live music and great food, the market is a regular destination for locals.

Patricia and Oby said that the market would not exist without the ongoing support of the local community.

The market's 11th anniversary will be celebrated on November 12 with some fabulous gifts to be won by lucky visitors.

Bruny hard cheese a big winner

Bruny Island Cheese Co. has won a Super Gold Medal and Trophy for Best Australian Cheese for their Raw Milk C2 cheese at the World Cheese Awards.

The 35th World Cheese Awards, hosted in Norway, saw an impressive 4502 entries from 43 countries, with a panel of 264 experts from 38 nations determining the outcome.

Bruny Island Cheese Co.'s Raw Milk C2, the first raw milk cheese made in Australia, was judged as amongst the best-of-the-best hard cheeses in the world and then went on to become the trophy winner for Best Australian Cheese.

Nick Haddow established Bruny Island Cheese Co. after a decade of global exploration and collaboration with specialist cheesemakers and emphasises the importance of time-honoured methods in crafting and maturing cheese.

"For Bruny Island Raw Milk C2 to be named as one of the few Super Gold cheeses out of over 4500 entries is a real honour and once again shows that Tasmania's premium produce is the best in the world," Mr Haddow said.

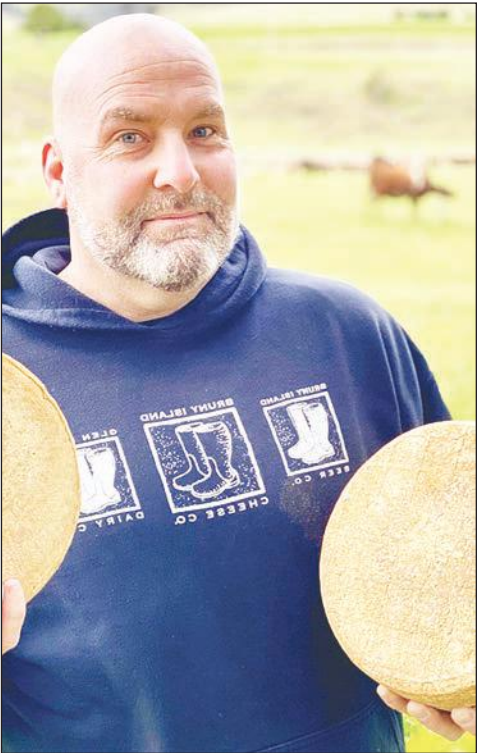

"This was the first raw milk cheese to be approved for production in Australia back in 2009 which was the result of several years of hard work, lobbying and trialling. "To have C2 recognised as one of the best in the world means a lot to me and my team.

"We are all feeling very proud that a cheese made from raw milk has been recognised on the world stage."

Head cheesemaker Luke Jackson said "Winning this award is recognition of all the hard work that our team puts in both at the farm and the cheesery".

"All of the team are incredibly excited for something we made with our own hands being recognised on an international stage."

Premier, Minister for Trade and Minister for Tourism and Hospitality Jeremy Rockliff said it's no secret that

Australia's first raw milk cheese, made by Bruny Island Cheese Co., has won international acclaim at the World Cheese Awards in Norway. Bruny Island Cheese Co. was established by Nick Haddow and emphasises the importance of time-honoured methods in crafting and maturing cheese. (PS)

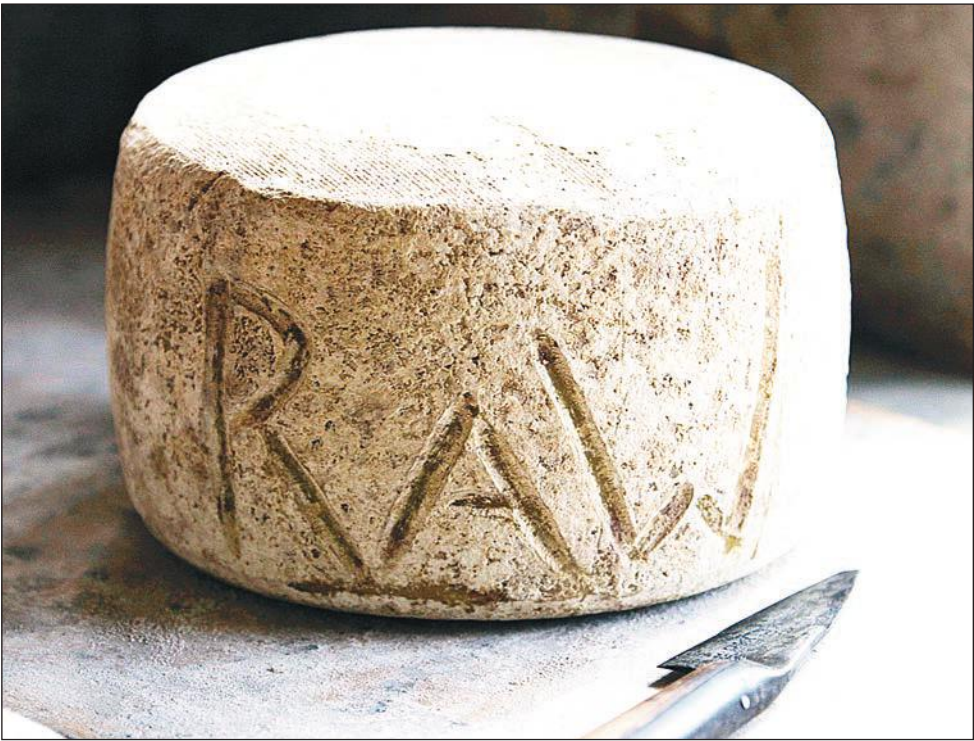

Tasmanian produce stands out on the world stage.

"This is a significant accolade and I want to pass on my enthusiastic congratulations to Bruny Island Cheese Co.," Premier Rockliff said.

"People come from across the world to visit Bruny Island, and with mouth-watering delicacies produced by home-grown companies like Bruny Island Cheese Co., it's no wonder why.

"Congratulations to everyone involved and well done on this fantastic award.

"I look forward to sampling their cheese again."

Thousands of entries from 43 countries were judged on everything from looks to mouth feel. Bruny Island Cheese Co.'s Raw Milk C2 was judged as amongst the best-of-the-best hard cheeses in the world. (PS)

Community supports local business

Kingborough local Hudson Navarro has seen his small business book out for weeks in advance thanks to the power of social media.

His father José Navarro posted to the Kingston and Channel Residents Facebook group about his son moving his detailing business into a commercial space in Huntingfield.

The post received dozens of positive comments and hundreds of likes and José said that the phone has been ringing off the hook.

"What a whirlwind," José said.

"The group posts usually gain 10-12 likes but to date, we have 477 likes and over 75 positive comments which clearly shows the power of community and the strength of the group."

Hudson, who is 18 and has been running the business for 12 months, is now booked for the next four weeks, though he stresses he can fit in minor jobs as needed.

Jose said it was bittersweet to watch his son move into his first commercial premises but that the best part was he was getting his garage back.

Two Step Detailing is moving to commercial premises in Huntingfield and thanks to his dad's social media savvy, Hudson Navarro has plenty of work lined up. (PS Barefoot Photography)

Southern Ocean short films in Kingston

Reviving Giants* by Great Southern Reef Foundation and Southern Blast by Surfrider Foundation will be shown at Kingston Community Hub on Wednesday, November 15 at 6pm.

The Great Southern Reef Foundation developed Reviving Giants in partnership with Sea Forest and the Eaglehawk Dive Centre to inspire and educate people about Australia's kelp forests.

The ten-minute film, directed by marine biologist and filmmaker Stefan Andrews, dives into the mission to restore Tasmania's rapidly declining kelp forests.

It follows the life and work of Mick Baron and Karen Gowllett-Holmes, owners of the Eaglehawk Dive Centre, who have been front-line witnesses and activists to the massive destruction of the giant kelp forests.

"Through Reviving Giants, I wanted to tell the story of Mick and Karen's tireless efforts to revive Tasmania's kelp forests while highlighting the urgent need for all of us to engage in protecting these precious ecosystems," Mr Andrews said.

Tasmania's kelp forests face the threat of extinction due to warming sea temperatures.

The film illuminates this underreported issue and serves as a rallying call to protect and rehabilitate these endangered ecosystems before it's too late.

The restoration efforts highlighted in this film are a collaborative initiative by the Institute for Marine and Antarctic Studies (IMAS), Sea Forest and Eaglehawk Dive Centre.

These organisations amalgamate innovative science, passion, and a deep understanding of giant kelp biology in their commitment to restoring these underwater forests.

IMAS researcher and co-producer of Reviving Giants, Scott Bennett said "Community engagement is integral to the foundation's objectives".

"Through creating and sharing original visual content, we're bringing the Great Southern Reef into focus, building public awareness and fostering grassroots involvement with temperate reefs."

Southern Blast is a beautiful cinematic celebration of the wild landscapes, abundant marine ecosystems, and local communities that call the Southern Ocean coastlines home.

Featuring footage shot on location in Lutruwita (Tasmania), the film connects with local personalities, from surfers to crayfishers, sustainable ocean businesses, and traditional custodians.

It wouldn't be a Surfrider film without magical wave-riding moments.

The film features sessions with Torren Martyn, Annie Ford, Kyron Rathbone, Zoey Grey and other ocean-loving characters.

Engaging as it is beautiful, Southern Blast has captured the wildness of the Southern Ocean and those who share a deep connection with it.

The film uplifts and inspires, leaving audiences with a message: this area is worth protecting, and we all have a role to play in helping to protect it from oil and gas exploration.

Southern Blast features footage shot on location in Lutruwita (Tasmania) and connects with local personalities, from surfers to crayfishers, sustainable ocean businesses, and traditional custodians. (PS)

Connecting people with employers

The Southern Employment and Training Network (SETN) is hosting a free Jobs Expo on Friday, December 1 at the Kingborough Community Hub.

Local employers, training organisations and apprenticeship providers will be in attendance, sharing job vacancies, training opportunities and career pathways advice.

Service providers will be on hand to provide resume support, share interview skills and tips, and outline funding opportunities and support for people who have lost their jobs in the last 12 months.

SETN is the seventh jobs hub in the regional jobs network to be established by the Tasmanian Government.

The program is run through Jobs Tasmania to help businesses find employees and to get more Tasmanians into meaningful work.

For further information, visit setn.org.au or contact Erin van Nieuwkuik from SETN info@setn.org.au or 0402 988 946.

Kingborough Netball carnival

The Eastern Panel and Paint Kingborough Netball Association (KNA) Statewide Junior Carnival took place over the weekend of October 21-22.

The carnival brought together 49 teams from across the state who competed at the Kingborough Netball Association outdoor courts and Kingborough Sports Centre indoor courts.

It was a fantastic opportunity for young netball athletes to showcase their skills and be considered for selection in Netball Tasmania's pathway for 2024.

The event attracted over 1800 visitors to the area, creating a vibrant and exciting atmosphere.

Kingborough achieved some outstanding results achieved by the KNA teams during the carnival:

- KNA U11s, grand final runners-up
 - KNA U12s, third place on the ladder
 - KNA U13s, grand final winners, with Sophie Short from Kingston awarded Player of the Match
 - KNA U14s, grand final runners-up
 - KNA U15s, sixth place on the ladder
- Despite challenging weather conditions on Saturday, including rain and wind, the teams displayed remarkable resilience and determination to play.

On Sunday, the weather improved significantly, with clear blue skies and sunshine, prompting the need for sunscreen.

"At a grassroots level, our netball community continues to grow," Angela Cassidy from KNA said.

"We have seen an increase in participation numbers, with over 300 school children playing netball on Monday nights in the KNA spring school roster.

"Many of these children are from schools in the Kingborough area, while others come from the Huon and greater Hobart regions.

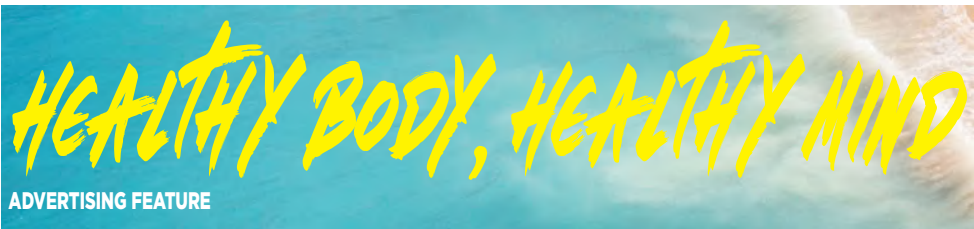

"Additionally, we have received excellent feedback from parents regarding our two sessions of NetSetGo, which have attracted over 60 participants."

Throughout the year, KNA also provides support to the Kingston Blues Netball Club and Kingborough Tigers Netball Club by facilitating the KNA courts.

"Netball is alive and thriving in the Kingborough community," Angela said.

KNA U12s came third place on the ladder. Back row coach Robyn Watson, Isla Armstrong, Sophie Clarke, Eliza Bessell, Lucy Thorp, Milla King, Eve Francis and coach Jodie O'Neill. Front row Lucy Speakman, Mollie Carmichael, Olive Sherwin and Maisie Synnott. More on page 21. (PS)

Let's Flourish began as a celebration to acknowledge the fantastic well-being achievements of patients who attend the Heartbeat Walkers and Talkers Walking Group.

It progressed to thinking about helping them use their passions and talents in a wider sphere than their sheds or rooms at home.

Our well-being involves our physical activity but the creative passionate part of us feeds our emotional and mental well-being in such a meaningful way.

Heather Kennett is passionate about encouraging and supporting people and Let's Flourish is about helping others to flourish and grow.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT - JAY BOWDEN

The Kingston Crows Cricket Club are excited to begin another season in the Huon Channel Cricket Association.

Last year the club had some amazing success, with four sides being entered in the competition for the first time in a while, meaning it was always going to be a tough year trying to find 44 players each week.

Amazingly, all four sides were able to reach their respective grand finals, with three sides achieving premiership success.

This year we face a shift in the playing squads with a young group ready to take on the challenges of 2023-24.

We were able to keep our fourth side as well which in itself is a major achievement.

The committee sees some new faces with the makeup being:

President: Jay Bowden
Vice President: Jason Jones
Vice President: Alicia Townsend
Treasurer: Jayden Rowe
Secretary: Tony Bowden

Committee members:

Sam Rose, Daniel Woodhead, Chris Tomlin, Chase McConnon, Steve Rose and Trent Rollins.

Daniel Woodhead has also taken on the task of coordinating our junior blast programs, something the club lacked last year.

We thank Dan for his time and efforts so far with this.

We are hopeful to continue the success we had last year for the upcoming season, but acknowledge that the club has lost plenty of experience which will bring its challenges.

What is exciting is to see is zhow our youthful A Grade team steps up and will see the club build on its history in the future.

New players welcome

We are seeing that we lack a few players to fill our 44 playing spots, so for anyone interested please contact us or turn up to training at Kingston Beach Oval on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 5.30pm.

All ages and skill levels welcome, and first timers too.

Thank you

The club is very fortunate to have long standing sponsors of which we acknowledge that without them, we would not be around today.

We would like to thank Tascon Constructions, PA Dance Builders, ABS Glenorchy, Cripps Nubake, HFT Interiors, The Salty Dog Hotel, Robbie Browns, Advanced Electrical, The Talbot Hotel, Kingston Locksmiths Service Centre, Raine & Horne, The Cricket Hub, Pep Pizza, Redbill Surf, Sushi Zanmai, Terrace Trading, Treptow Tiling, Kingston Town Meats, Dean Winter and Kingston Beach Take Away.

As President, I would like to thank all our executive, committee, players, supporters and sponsors for their contributions in the past, present and future, as it makes my job very simple.

Go Crows, AARRKK!

Kingborough bowls top of the ladder

Ladder leaders Kingborough Division 1 played Glenorchy City on a very windy Glenorchy City green recently.

They maintained their spot on the ladder with a great 72-49 win on all rinks.

Sue Clark's team had an early break, with the skip playing some good conversion shots early on.

They were leading 9-3 at lunch with her team adapting well to the fast and windy green.

After the break, with newcomer Yvonne Duffy leading very well, Lou Wallace consolidating as the two and Nadine Seabourne playing some great upshots, Clark's team came out with a resounding win, 30-14.

Maddie Johnson's team struggled early and were down 8-0 after four ends but with a great team effort from Sue Mann, Sally Bowes and third Greta Murray they came away with a 24-21 win in the trying conditions.

Leonie Price's team of Vicki Bannister, Colleen Dance and Pauline Connell came out eventual winners with all players contributing throughout the match, including some great bowls from third Vicki Bannister to win 18-14.

Division 2 ladies hosted Claremont at the Kingborough Bowls Indoor Centre.

Pam Rosevears team had a slow start but came home strongly with an eight-shot win.

Lyn Cowen, Diane Spooner and Anne Palmer as lead all contributed to this win, 21-13.

Skip Lee Shead, Frances Phillips, Judith Traill and lead Theresa Direen led the duration of the game which resulted in a seven-shot win for the Tigers, 20-13.

Skip Lorraine Walker with team members Regina Hayes, Karlene Beadle and lead Dorothy Cupit experienced a slow start.

Regina Hayes was holding the shot but the opposing skip denied the Tigers the win, 21-22.

Kingborough had an overall win 63-49, gaining 10 points.

Division 3 ladies travelled to the Rodman Bowls Club in Glenorchy where they had an overall win 62 shots to 58, gaining nine points.

Skip Maureen Sculthorpe's team consisting of Janene Stubbs, Kaye Ashlin and lead Diane Lovell drew with Glenorchy Rodman, 17-17.

Jean Hemmings, Glenna Thompson, Sue-Ellen Martyn and lead Kerrie Cahill went down by five shots, 18-23.

Skip Deb Smith with her team had a convincing win.

Tania Anderson, Margaret Thorpe and lead Fiona Hickey won by nine shots, 27-18.

Congratulations to Diane Lovell playing her 100 games and Fiona Hickey 150.
